990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Form 990 was prepared by an independent CPA firm and reviewed by the officers and financial management team in detail at Denver Rescue Mission. After this, the Board of Directors of the Denver Rescue Mission reviewed the Form 990 prior to the document being submitted to the Internal Revenue Service.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Denver Rescue Mission requires board members, executive officers and key employees to complete a conflict of interest disclosure statement annually. The finance team monitors transactions and reports any potential conflicts of interest to the board. The person with a conflict excuses his or her self from the decision making process and the board votes on whether or not the transaction is in the best interest of the organization.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Denver Rescue Mission performs a study to benchmark the salaries of its employees with compensation surveys of comparable organizations. The goal is to match salaries and market rates for each staff position based on several nationwide and local employment surveys. The proposed salary ranges for each position are then approved by the Executive Team. The independent Board of Directors of the Denver Rescue Mission also reviews and approves executive compensation, including the President and Chief Executive Officer, at least annually compared to surveys of similar organizations. The board's deliberation and decision are documented in the board minutes.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization makes its governing documents and conflict of interest policy available upon request. Financial statements are available on the organization's website.
