Compensation for this officer was received from University of Utah Hospitals & Clinics (Hospitals), an unrelated organization. The salaries of every position at Hospitals are reviewed annually with the outside market using a scope that is specific to the organization and that particular position. Based on this information, it is determined whether the grade assigned to that position is correct and adjustments are made as necessary. After making sure the grade is appropriate, the incumbents within the positions are reviewed to ensure they are paid appropriately based on the experience they have within that position.
