Education and Outreach This program strengthens grassroots efforts by engaging the general public, community leaders, interested organization, and urban and community forestry professionals California ReLeafs programs are designed to educate Californians about the value and benefits of trees as well as sound tree care practices In addition to USDA Forest Service funding, two CAL FIRE grants supported the expansion of educational opportunities and resources 2014 CAL FIRE Beyond Capacity GrantCalifornia ReLeaf started work on this grant in the spring of 2015 and completed the grant in December 2015 The grant addressed capacity building so that urban forest community groups and under-resourced communities can better work together to plant and care for trees where trees are needed the most in California cities The goal of the grant was to provide new training and resources at various levels for California ReLeaf, the current ReLeaf Network Members and for new community groups interested in building better communities through trees On demand webinar trainings were created or accessed from complementary organizations, resulting in 12 new webinars while 12 new videos resulted from filming the Communications Training and Leadership Workshop in August 2015 In addition to webinars, ReLeaf added significant new online resources for starting new tree organizations, including foundational document samples and links to additional online resources 2015 Technical Education GrantIn the fall of 2015, California ReLeaf was awarded a Technical Education Grant by CAL FIRE to support several small educational projects including the revamp of the California Arbor Week educational activities to align with Common Core standards, the funding of a 2016 Arbor Week Tree Planting Grant, and the launch of a Tree Care for Birds and Other Wildlife Best Management Practices project The Tree Care for Birds and Other Wildlife BMP project is subcontracted to a consultant with a working group The Technical Education Grant continues through December 2016 FY2016 Education & Outreach Accomplishments Newsletters Circulation for mailed newsletters 2,285 recipients Newsletters can be found online in PDF format at <http://californiareleaf.org/newsletter/>The Spring 2016 issue highlighted the On-Demand Educational resources available on the ReLeaf website, which cover a range of issues from Cultural Competency 101, Latino Engagement with Nature and the Outdoors, Building Solidarity for Racial Justice to Social Media 101, Social Media Advocacy, and Tips & Tricks to Make Good Photos Great Legislative and Network Highlights are also included in addition to a Network Member Profile of Los Angeles Beautification Team (formerly Hollywood Beautification Team) The Summer 2016 issue discussed the positive impact of tree care job development on communities and youth workforce development Other articles included a legislative update and a Network Member Profile of Growing Together in Oakland E-Communications Circulation Over 900 Recipients Over 60 eBlasts were sent covering a variety of topics such as introducing urban forest grant opportunities, Arbor Week Poster Contest, Arbor Week Grants, opportunities to support urban forest advocacy, and the California ReLeaf Network Retreat and the Power of Trees Urban Forest Conference held in August 2016 Social Media Circulation In addition to publishing California ReLeafs periodic newsletter, California Trees, in a shorter format with an online version featuring live hyperlinks, ReLeaf is very active in using social media to share urban forestry issues of interest to community groups, government employees, and green industry professionals Especially in the past year, social media has been very effective in helping ReLeaf reach new community audiences, including environmental justice and Latino organizations This is an expanding trend and strategy for ReLeaf Webinars To see the expanded array of new webinars covering topics such as Latino Engagement, Social Justice, Social Media, and more please visit <http://californiareleaf.org/resources/webinars/>California Arbor Week The 2016 California Arbor Week Poster Contest Winner announcement was held in conjunction with a ceremonial tree planting at the Governors Mansion in Sacramento in honor of Governor and Mrs. Browns recent renovation and relocation of the official governors residence back to this historic building The educational activities that complement the poster contest were updated to align with the California Common Core Standards New middle school educational activities have been developed, which will be finalized in the fall of 2016 The winning posters were displayed outside the Governors office during Arbor Week and also at the California State Fair in July 2016 Please visit the website at [http://arborweek.org/Tree Care for Birds and Other Wildlife Facilitated by a consultant, a working group of arborists b A family member of a person described in (a) above?	11b
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI.	11c

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Section E. Type III Functionally-Integrated Supporting Organizations

1 Check the box next to the method that the organization used to satisfy the Integral Part Test during the year (see instructions) a ☐ The organization satisfied the Activities Test. Complete line 2 below. b ☐ The organization is the parent of each of its supported organizations. Complete line 3 below. c ☐ The organization supported a governmental entity. Describe in Part VI how you supported a government entity (see instructions).
2 Activities Test. Answer (a) and (b) below.
a Did substantially all of the organization's activities during the tax year directly further the exempt purposes of the supported organization(s) to which the organization was responsive? If "Yes," then in Part VI identify those supported organizations and explain how these activities directly furthered their exempt purposes, how the organization was responsive to those supported organizations, and how the organization determined that these activities constituted substantially all of its activities.
b Did the activities described in (a) constitute activities that, but for the organization's involvement, one or more of the organization's supported organization(s) would have been engaged in? If "Yes," explain in Part VI the reasons for the organization's position that its supported organization(s) would have engaged in these activities but for the organization's involvement. 3 Parent of Supported Organizations. Answer (a) and (b) below.
a Did the organization have the power to regularly appoint or elect a majority of the officers, directors, or trustees of each of the supported organizations? Provide details in Part VI.
b Did the organization exercise a substantial degree of direction over the policies, programs and activities of each of its supported organizations? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role played by the organization in this regard.

Part II-B, Line 1i - Other Activities Description	From July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016, California ReLeaf focused public policy efforts primarily on increasing state funding opportunities for urban forestry, demonstrating value and need for Cal FIRE's Urban and Community Forestry Program, and advancing progressive climate change-related legislation in the following ways: 1. ReLeaf staff advocated for including funding for Cal FIRE's Urban and Community Forestry Program in the Cap and Trade Expenditure Plans within the State Budget for fiscal years 15-16 and 16-17, as well as funding for a new Green Infrastructure Program administered by the California Natural Resources Agency. California ReLeaf also advocated for forest health funding in 2016. California ReLeaf met with the California Air Resources Board, the Governors Office, CAL-EPA, California Natural Resources Agency, CAL FIRE, and the Legislature on this issue. Our advocacy efforts also included getting our Network of urban forest nonprofits, other environmental groups, as well as social justice organization to sign on to letters of support for the legislature actions described above. 2. ReLeaf staff advocated for including urban forestry in a proposed park bond (Assembly Bill 2444) that could be scheduled for the 2016 ballot. Also advocated for including urban forestry in a proposed water bond citizens initiative that would act as a companion to Proposition 1 passed by the voters in 2014. These efforts were focused primarily on building support among those closely connected to the effort, including the Nature Conservancy and Resources Legacy Fund. We met only with non-profit and private stakeholders on the proposed initiative, but did meet with multiple legislators and staff on AB 2444. 3. Our advocacy efforts also included getting our Network of urban forest nonprofits, other environmental groups, as well as social justice organization to sign on to letters of support for the legislature actions described above. Some of the nonprofits are run by volunteers vs paid staff. 4. Our other activity was a spur of the moment creation of two brief videos including approximately 25-40 people cheering in support of Cap & Trade funding for trees and in support of AB 1550. Supported several pieces of legislation related to climate change and cap-and-trade expenditures. This included (in 2015) SB 350, SB 32, AB 1288, and SB 398. In 2016, the list includes AB 1550, AB 1613, AB 2480, AB 2722, AB 2796, AB 2222, SB 32, SB 1294, SB 859, SB 824, and SB 1386.
