Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The university's endowment includes donor-restricted endowment and funds designated by the Board of Trustees to function as endowment (quasi-endowment). The university's donor-restricted endowment was created through the generosity of generations of donors who requested that their gifts be invested for a period of time or in perpetuity to provide resources to support the university's mission. The university's quasi-endowment was created by the Board of Trustees through their designation of unrestricted bequests and careful stewardship of other unrestricted resources. The purpose of the endowment is to provide ongoing financial support for the university's annual operations. The university recognizes that support for current operations must be consistent with the long-term growth of the endowment. Over time the university's goal is to grow the endowment through prudent investment and through the addition of new gifts, while providing steadily growing support to university programs across generations.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	FIRST-CLASS OR CHARTER TRAVEL The president is the only position reported in the Form 990 for which the university paid or reimbursed business or first-class travel. The university did not utilize chartered flights for air travel. Extensive travel is required of the position of president and he is encouraged by the Board of Trustees to travel business or first class on flights of two hours or more. This provision is made for several reasons: 1) business or first-class travel allows for the most flexibility to accommodate a travel schedule that must frequently be altered, often at the last minute to accommodate donors' schedules, add critical meetings, or to take advantage of other strategic opportunities for the university; 2) circumstances sometimes call for the president to return to campus without notice, or to remain on campus when a trip was planned, and first or business-class travel best accommodates these changing conditions; and 3) the Board of Trustees wishes the president to be at his best performance representing and seeking funding for the university during often grueling travel itineraries for meetings frequently critical to the institution's well-being. This accommodation was not treated as taxable compensation. HOUSING ALLOWANCE OR RESIDENCE FOR PERSONAL USE The president is required to live on campus in the university-owned president's residence where he regularly holds university events. Because the president accepts this requirement as a condition of employment, the residence is on university premises, and it is provided for the convenience of the university, under IRS rules it is not considered a taxable benefit to the president. As required by IRS Form 990, the value of the portion of the residence used by the president for personal living quarters has been estimated and is included in the amounts reported on Form 990, Schedule J, Part II, Column (D).
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	Line 4b: Persons who participated in a supplemental nonqualified retirement plan, including a reasonable estimate of their potential share of the increase in the actuarial value of the faculty early retirement and career change plan and the post-retirement medical benefits plan: Ronald R. Thomas ($163,309), Sherry B. Mondou ($12,283), David R. Beers ($14,551), Jennifer J. Rickard ($14,905), and Kristine M. Bartanen ($2,220). Persons who received a payment from a supplemental nonqualified retirement plan, which vested and was reported on Part VII and Schedule J in previous Form 990 returns: Sherry B. Mondou ($90,165) and David R. Beers ($113,496). Persons who received payment from a supplemental nonqualified faculty early retirement and career change plan and post-retirement medical benefits plan: Catherine A. Hale ($218,395), Paul Loeb ($230,286), and David Tinsley ($195,334).
Schedule J, Part II	Column (B) (iii) Other reportable compensation includes taxable optional life insurance, vested 457(b) deferred compensation, vested 457(f) deferred compensation accumulation, faculty early retirement and career change plan distributions, as applicable to each individual. Column (C) Retirement and other deferred compensation includes 403(b) retirement contributions, unvested 457(f) deferred compensation, and the attributed increase in the actuarial value of the faculty early retirement and career change plan and post-retirement medical benefits plan, as applicable to each individual. Column (D) Nontaxable benefits include employer and employee pre-tax contributions to medical including faculty post-retirement medical, dental, disability, and life insurance benefits, dependent tuition benefits, and employer provided housing, as applicable for each individual. Mary Elizabeth Collins dependent tuition benefits ($32,500) are from St. Mary's College, an unrelated organization, through the University of Puget Sound's participation in the National Tuition Exchange, Inc. program. Sherry B. Mondou dependent tuition benefits ($10,800) are from the university's open tuition scholarship program.
