Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Organization and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Organization has taken uncertain positions that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Organization, and has concluded that as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Organization is subject to audits by taxing authorities, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.
