Womenspace has directed and established Youth Services, Community Education and Outreach, Legal Advocacy, Emergency Cnsis Line, and Support Groups programs Since 1975, these programs have contributed to our ability to support and protect this vulnerable and invisible population of people both enduring and struggling with IPV Youth Services ensures that children, who are particularly vulnerable to the effects of violence in the home and are at increased risk of being abused themselves and more likely to be in abusive relationships later in life, are given the opportunity to develop in environments free of violence Our Community Education and Outreach department disseminates information about IPV and healthy relationships to reduce domestic violence through education Our Legal Advocacy program guides clients through the confusing legal system for child custody, restitution, court orders, and other issues critical to their safety while transitioning away from abusive relationships Our Emergency Crisis Line takes calls and provides life-saving referrals either to one of our programs or to a community resource Our support groups, as with all our services, are offered in both English and Spanish, and include Intimate Partner Violence Education and Parenting in Crisis We also provide childcare while the parents focus on information provided

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	Note 9 - Accounting for Uncertain Tax PositionsThe Organization adopted the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 740-10, Income Taxes, relating to accounting for uncertain tax positions on July 1, 2009, which had no significant financial statement impact to the Organization. The Organization recognizes the tax benefit from uncertain tax positions only if it is more likely than not that the tax positions will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit is measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Organization was incorporated and operates in the State of Oregon which recognizes the 501(c)(3) nonprofit status for state tax purposes. The Organization is not aware of any activities which would terminate its tax exempt status. The Organization recognizes interest and penalties related to income tax matters in operating expenses. Management has concluded that there were no uncertain tax positions as of June 30, 2016. Tax years ending prior to June 30, 2013 are closed to examination by federal and state tax authorities.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12 - Conflict of Interest Policy	To ensure the organization operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, the Organization does have a conflict of interest policy that is applicable to employees. The organization is currently working on a broader policy that also formally covers the board of directors and to put in place procedures and policies for periodic review. On an annual basis, the auditors do inquire with respect to the conflicts of interest and may obtain written representations from the board members and officers, therefore management and the board are aware of and making representations with respect to conflicts of interest.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 14 - Document Retention Policy	The organization has established guidelines for document retention and destruction. The organization is currently working on a formalized policy and expanding the scope of its current guidelines.
