See Schedule OPRIDE Industries and PRIDE One Inc. CARF-accredited programs for people with disabilities are designed to build skills leading to personal and professional growth as well as increased independence. Individual plans are designed around each person's personal strengths, abilities and goals. As of June 30, 2016, PRIDE Industries and PRIDE One Inc. employed and/or provided services to 3,237 individuals with diverse intellectual, developmental, physical, sensory, or mental health disabilities. Our core programs are employment focused centering around 1) Vocational Training, 2) Supported Community Employment and 3) Individual Preparation and Placement in community employment. Employing a model of social enterprise, PRIDE creates jobs in its own businesses and in partnership with others. Nearly 1,300 individuals with disabilities were employed on hundreds of commercial contracts. More than 620 worked with community employers in individual or group supported employment. 117 individuals were enrolled in the Recruitment and Training program, deployed on large contracts requiring specialized skills. The program combines soft-skills development, individual coaching and specialized skills training. 290 individuals were enrolled in an accredited advance skills and technical training program. More than 1,300 individuals with significant disabilities were employed on Federal contract opportunities across the country providing a wide range of facilities services. More than 200 at-risk youth and teens emancipating from foster care who face obstacles to employment were served through the Youth Services Program providing marketable work experience, employment skills training, educational connections, and individualized support to help them secure stable employment and build self-sufficient lives.
