| Part II, Line 5 Summarized Policy | It is the policy of the Big Sur Land Trust to only acquire and hold for consideration those lands or interests in land that contain resources or conservation values that the land trust determines to be of real benefit to the public. The land trust shall proactively manage and monitor all lands and conservation easements that it acquires for the long-term benefit of the local communities where those lands are situated, emphasizing long-term ecological health of the land and associated resources. Prior to acquisition, the land trust will assess and document the resources and conservation values of concern and will project the reasonable on-going management, monitoring and enforcement costs thereof; the trust will determine a means of endowing these stewardship costs. The land trust will undertake appropriate due diligence regarding title and liability issues prior to acquisition, including assessment for hazardous materials or conditions, visual inspection for adverse interests of claims, title insurance and surveys when appropriate. |

| Part X    FIN48 Footnote                                                               | Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by the Trust in its federal and state tax returns are more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination. The Trust files information returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and state of California. The Trust's federal returns for the tax years 2012 and beyond remain subject to possible examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Trust's California returns for the tax years 2011 and beyond remain subject to possible examination by the Franchise Tax Board. |
