Part I	Summary
---------------	----------------

Activities & Governance	1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities Turning Point Community Programs (TPCP) provides integrated cost-effective mental health services combined with employment and housing services to promote recovery, independence, and self-sufficiency. Program successes are measured in reduced hospital days, reduced incarceration, and reduced use of emergency rooms and crisis services along with employment. People move beyond their diagnosis, recover, and contribute to the community. TPCP serves over 6,000 clients with psychiatric disabilities in seven Northern California counties: Sacramento, Stanislaus, Yolo, Nevada, Placer, Butte, and Merced. Clients with mental illness served include the homeless, adults, families including children and young adults/ transition aged youth (TAY).

In Sacramento county, TPCP's pathways to success after homelessness provides comprehensive, integrated mental health services including housing for 350 children and their families, transition aged youth, adults, and older adults. Pathways provides permanent supportive housing and mental health services for those with psychiatric disabilities and long-term or cyclical homelessness. Staff uses a harm-reduction "whatever it takes" approach to support members in meeting their desired goals. Families with children are offered culturally diverse supportive services so they can stay together and be part of the community. All eligible groups will maintain housing, children will attend school or quality day care as appropriate, transition age youth and adults will be supported to improve their quality of life through employment, education, volunteerism, and an improved social support system, and older adults will be actively engaged in ways that enhance their independence and decrease isolation. Pathways is one of the first major prop. 63 mental health services act funded programs to be launched in Sacramento county. Between April 1, 2016 and June 30, 2016, pathways served a total of 344 unduplicated individuals. In that time period, of the 344 individuals served, 93.0% did not accrue psychiatric hospital days, 94.8% did not accrue incarceration days, 87.8% did not accrue homeless days, and 90.1% did not accrue emergency interventions. Pathways also received an overall satisfaction rate of 77.9%.

Turning point community programs operates 2 Full Service Partnership (FSP) and Integrated Services Agencies (ISA), one in Sacramento County and one in Stanislaus County. ISA services generally include the provision of psychosocial rehabilitation and recovery services for adults with psychiatric disabilities and extended histories of long-term hospitalization. The goal is to help individuals "take charge of their lives" through informed decision-making along with psychiatric, rehabilitative and psychosocial support. Services are based on the individual's long-term goals and desired results. The ISA located in Modesto is especially unique in that staff work with a higher population of individuals within locked facilities and function as conservators while working closely with the public guardian's office. Combined, the 2 ISA's served a total of 357 individuals within the 15/16 fiscal year. In that reporting period, of the 357 individuals served, 69.2% did not accrue psychiatric hospital days, 92.7% did not accrue incarceration days, 94.1% did not accrue homeless days, and 64.7% did not accrue emergency interventions. On average, the two programs received an overall satisfaction rate of 81.2%.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Turning Point is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by Turning Point in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Turning Point's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	990 sent to individual board members for review and approval Approval to be given by the Board Executive Committee before filing
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	On an annual basis, the Board and its officers renew the conflict of interest statement for compliance Supervisory accounting staff are made aware of conflict of interest policies and expected to bring possible conflicts to management's attention

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Board of Directors has commissioned an independent survey, but currently uses other independent publicly available surveys to determine the CFO's compensation. Additionally, the Board annually evaluates the CEO as part of its annual compensation review. Compensation for other officers and key employees consists of salary, a cafeteria plan benefit credit which goes primarily to offset health insurance costs, an annually-determined retirement plan contribution, and an allowance for the COO. The benefit credit is a flat amount which applies equally to all employees depending upon various criteria and the retirement contribution is an ERISA-compliant company-paid plan that is awarded at an equal percentage for all employees.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization's audited financial statement, Federal Form 990 are available upon request at Turning Point's administrative offices located at 3440 Viking Drive, Sacramento, CA 95827.
