Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

The BHSDG's primary exempt purpose is to support and augment the educational programs and student services of Berkeley High School, including Berkeley Technology Academy and Berkeley Independent Study (in discussion below, these are referred to collectively as "BHS") These schools have a combined enrollment of approximately 3500 students The BHSDG accomplishes its exempt purpose through two programs making and administering grants to fund purchase and programs at BHS and administering funds, which are donations for specific learning communities, small schools, departments and programs at BHS (described in Program Service Accomplishments below)

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

Yes

No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

Yes

No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 528,723 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

In the 2014-15 school year, the Berkeley High School Development Group received and processed over $518,000 in donations and other revenue Of this total, almost $321,000 was unrestricted for general support of the Berkeley High School learning community These unrestricted gifts funded direct student support through a variety of programs, including a school wide after school tutoring program, college and career handbooks for all juniors and seniors, fee assistance covering college application and testing fees for low-income students, writing coaches, mentors, student clubs, and forty First Step Scholarships for low-income college bound students who were the first in their families to go to college It also funded field tnps, a college fair, equipment and supplies for science and art classes, professional development and training for teachers and counselors, books, classroom supplies, support for music and dance programs, and more Approximately $197,000 was restricted to specific small schools, learning communities, and departments within Berkeley High School As a service to the Berkeley High School community, BHSDG administers these funds at no cost to the programs These funds provided student support in the form of tutors, writing coaches, and program coordinators, and also provided computers, musical instruments, college field tnps, science lab supplies and equipment, and professional training for teachers BHSDG benefits from countless hours of work donated by its volunteer board and other members of the school community Thus, it was able to keep its administrative and fundraising costs extremely low, at under $32,000 (6.5% of total costs)

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.
