Our CORE Program ValuesCommunityOpportunity Reintegration EmpowermentThe primary component of our CORE Program is to help our clients identify and access their strengths and resources both within themselves and within our community This starts with a mutual desire, a mutual connection and an inherent sense of trust Our prospective clients are invited to help themselves to a hot meal and to sit down together around a dinner table with CORE Program clients who are in various stages of their own journeys Once an individual demonstrates a commitment to our program and a mutually-agreed upon plan, he or she is invited to utilize the services of our resource center, located at 720 Columbus Avenue in San Francisco’s North Beach neighborhood, Monday through Friday between the hours of 9 30 a m and 12 00 p m Clients tell us their stories and share their unique and very specific circumstances We then specialize in tailoring a very different path for each of our very different clients depending on their individual journey towards self-sufficiency In the beginning, critical needs are addressed such as immediate health concerns or basic human needs such as food and clothing Our clients each have access to bathroom facilities, hygiene products, phones, computer, and if necessary, a mailing address at our center We strive to help each client reach individualized benchmarks that are achievable for him or her on the journey towards stability Depending on the individual, clients can receive assistance with benefits they are entitled, help from medical and financial organizations, access to stabilization housing when appropriate, and assistance with transportation to and from appointments Clients are always treated in an atmosphere that promotes trust, guarantees integrity, and ensures respect We believe that these three values lay the groundwork for all future progress

Housing StabilizationEmergency Interim Housing (One week to one month in duration) Emergency Interim Housing in a Single Room Occupancy Hotel (SROs) is for clients who are experiencing an emergency hardship Reserved for a client who experiences an emergency medical situation (pre-operation or post-operation) or for a client who requires emergency bidge housing from one permanent residence to another Transitional Housing (One month or more) We are able to end homelessness for our clients by keeping them off the streets while they are in the process of securing housing and income benefits This is transitional housing in a Single Room Occupancy Hotel (SROs) for clients who have a definitive housing opportunity and an income source within a foreseeable timeframe Eviction Prevention (One time) The reality is that each one of us experiences hardships at times and many of us are just one check away from experiencing true homelessness Preventing homelessness in the first place is the easiest way to reduce homelessness in the long run With that in mind, we prevent evictions by providing one-time grants for rental arrears Our clients or members of our community must demonstrate that they will be able to pay their rent going forward to receive this one-time help This ensures that our assistance will solve the problem, rather than just postpone inevitable homelessness for a few months Move-In Fund Imagine youve just secured a housing opportunity for the first time, but are prevented from moving in because you cannot afford the first months rent and security deposit Our move-in fund can make the difference between someone accepting a housing opportunity or remaining on the streets With this fund, we provide critical items such as the first months rent and the security deposit
