As a prerequisite of IDRA receiving federal government grants, IDRA collaborates with school districts described in section 170(c)(1), and educational institutions described in section

170(b)(1)(j), to increase the number of EC-4 Bilingual and English as a Second Language (ESL) teachers in the primary and secondary schools. Before making any grant, IDRA conducts funds by requiring them to provide quarterly reports including receipts, describing their progress and expenditure of grant funds as well as an annual financial audit statement. IDRA reserves the right to verify the information contained in these reports through on-site observation of the grantee which may occur at IDRA's discretion.

Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Part I, Line 1a. In 2015, members of IDRA's Board of Directors were permitted to bring a companion to the organization's board meetings. Five directors availed themselves of this option. The value of the companion travel is reported as compensation to these directors (each of whom received no other compensation from IDRA) on Part VII, Column (D), and (F) of IDRA's 2015 Form 990. As detailed in Part VII, Column (D), the value of the companion travel provided to three directors was above the $600 reporting threshold in section 6041(a) of the Code; for these directors, IDRA reported the benefit as compensation on Form 1099.

Part I, Line 7. With regards to executive compensation, the full Board of Directors regularly reviews relevant comparability data, discusses that data and contemporaneously documents their decisions surrounding executive compensation. A long-term incentive plan has been adopted in conjunction with the compensation review whereby the Board has set targets and objectives for the CEO & President related to the organization's continued growth and success. The Board meets to discuss how those targets and objectives are being met and an appropriate compensation determination is made as to the long-term incentive plan.

Part III of Program Service Accomplishment 4d. Other Program Service

CAMINOS - This project is a five year federally funded project through which IDRA has created a consortium which includes IDRA, four high-need Texas school districts and universities to certify 150 bilingual and bilingual special education teachers through an accelerated teacher preparation program. The goal of the project is to produce a rigorous accelerated and unique one and one-half year program resulting in a critical mass of highly qualified bilingual/ESL teachers or bilingual/ESL who also will become certified in special education.

The Teachers for Today and Tomorrow (T-3) is a five year project funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Transition to Teacher program. Through T-3, IDRA is selecting, recruiting and retaining competent teachers in multicultural settings who have a passion for teaching and making a difference; is developing a curriculum to certify teachers in bilingual/ESL and STEM subjects in mostly Latino communities; and is providing a comprehensive online and personalized support system to retain teachers for a minimum of three years

T-3 also is expanding the candidate pool to include paraprofessionals, a basic feature of a "grow your own" teacher recruitment approach

Development Fund - The development fund provides resources for mission and priority program services not supported by external funding and for development of new programs. It facilitates the dissemination of knowledge about best teaching practices in classrooms with diverse students, the creation of materials that specifically address the needs of traditionally underserved students, and research on school finance and other indicators tied to the quality of education that all students receive. On average this fund supports educational services that have a direct impact on students and teachers. Also, 730 school administrators and parents were served directly in 2016. These services have a national focus with particular interest in Texas schools and the creation of equitable educational opportunities for all children

SEMILLITAS - This project responds to the need for educational equity and culturally and linguistically relevant early childhood materials for Latino, Native and African American children. SEMILLITAS will result in the implementation of an innovative and integrated approach for early childhood equity and educational transformation for vulnerable Latino, Native and African American children in New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas through community partnerships, culturally-relevant educational materials training and technical assistance and an online community of learners. This program is funded by the W.K. Kellogg Foundation.

Part VI, Section B, Line 11b, 990 Review Process - Description of the 990 Board of Directors review process - IDRA's annual Form 990 undergoes a number of internal and external reviews. In preparing this return, the business manager relies on the organization's audited financial statements, which are prepared by independent outside auditors. The return is then reviewed by an independent public accounting firm, outside counsel, and the organization's President. The final version of the Form 990 is provided to each member of the Board of Directors for review and discussion before it is filed with the IRS.

Part VI, Section B, Line 12c, Conflict of Interest Policy - Description of Conflict of Interest Policy Methods of Monitoring & Enforcement of Compliance. IDRA has an established conflict of interest policy that is applicable to all officers, directors, and employees. The organization implements, monitors, and enforces the policy through annual disclosure, whistle-blower and other periodic reporting processes. Officers, directors and senior managers must report annually any existing family or business relationships with IDRA, other employees, and certain third-parties, including significant vendors, contractors, or others with material business or financial relationships with the organization. Each year, all officers, directors, and employees must acknowledge in writing that they have read and agree to comply with IDRA's conflict of interest policy. Conflict of interest disclosure forms are completed by board and all staff and kept as organizational records by the Executive Secretary and available annually for review by the independent auditor and the full board. Management and the Board of Directors have established mechanisms to operate, monitor, and enforce the policy to ensure that no officer, director or employee in a decision-making capacity can participate in deliberations or decisions involving matters in which conflicts are found to exist. In all cases these matters are subject to review, appeal and final decision by the full Board of Directors.
