Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 6a	The annual community benefit report is prepared by Porter Medical Center, the parent Company of Porter Hospital, Inc
Part I, Line 7	The Organization used a cost-to-charge ratio as its methodology for calculating amounts on Lines 7a & 7b. An actual costing methodology was used to calculate the amounts on lines 7f & 7i

990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Part III, Line 2	The Organization used the cost-to-charge ratio as its costing methodology to calculate bad debt expense at cost
Part III, Line 4	Patient accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect for services rendered from third-party payors, patients and others. Management provides an allowance for uncollectible accounts based upon a review of outstanding receivables, historical collection information and existing economic conditions. Accounts are considered delinquent and subsequently written off as uncollectible based on individual credit evaluation and specific circumstances of the account. In evaluating the collectability of accounts receivable, the Hospital analyzes past results and identifies trends for each of its major payor sources of revenue to estimate the appropriate allowance for doubtful accounts and provision for bad debts. Management regularly reviews data about these major payor sources in evaluating the sufficiency of the allowance for doubtful accounts. For receivables associated with services provided to patients who have third-party coverage, the Hospital analyzes contractually due amounts and provides an allowance for doubtful accounts and a provision for bad debts. For receivables associated with self-pay patients (which included both patients without insurance and patients with deductible and copayment balances due for which third-party coverage exists for part of the bill), the Hospital records a provision for bad debts in the period of service based on past experience, which indicates that many patients are unable or unwilling to pay amounts for which they are financially responsible. The difference between the standard rates (or the discounted rate if negotiated or eligible) and the amounts actually collected after all reasonable collection efforts have been exhausted is charged against the allowance for doubtful accounts. The Organization used the Medicare Cost Report to report Medicare allowable costs of care related to the payments on Schedule H, Part III, Section B Medicare, Line 6.
