Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Chamber is exempt from income taxes under Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") Section 501(c)(6), as determined by the Internal Revenue Service. Unrelated business income, as defined by Section 512(a)(1) of the Code, is subject to federal income tax. The Organization had no unrelated business income during the years ended September 30, 2016 or 2015. The Chamber recognizes and measures its unrecognized tax positions by assessing the likelihood, based on their technical merit, that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period. The measurement of unrecognized tax positions is adjusted when new information becomes available, or when an event occurs that requires a change. Interest and penalties associated with unrecognized income tax positions, if identified, will be classified as additional income taxes in the Statement of Revenues, Expenses and Changes in Unrestricted Net Assets - Modified Cash Basis. The Chamber has not identified any uncertain tax positions at September 30, 2016 or 2015. The Chamber is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any periods in progress or pending.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, is an interested person. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the North Shore Chamber of Commerce can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the North Shore Chamber of Commerce's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.
