Part III, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Tax indemnification and gross-up payments	Schedule J, Part I, line 1a Certain benefits identified on Part 1 Line 1A are provided by the related organization, Sturdy Memorial Hospital, that compensates certain listed individuals. When the hospital makes payments to retirement plans that are taxable upfront, they are partially grossed up for taxes. During calendar year 2015, such payments were made for Bruce Auerbach, MD and Joesph Casey. Also, the hospital and associates paid a flat bonus (the same amount to each employee prorated for hours worked) to all hospital and associate employees, and announced the net amount (effectively paying the taxes). The hospital also provides its senior managers with long-term disability insurance. The cost of this insurance is grossed up to effectively pay for the related taxes and is added to the managers gross earnings. This benefit was provided to Bruce Auerbach, MD, and Joesph Casey during calendar year 2015.
Approval for gross-up payments	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1b As explained in line 1(a) above, there are few instances where a gross-up is used. The board of the hospital approves the bonus (net of taxes) and the executive committee approves the supplemental retirement plan.
Compensation of Top Management Official	Schedule J, Part I, Line 3 The CEO/Executive Director is compensated entirely through Sturdy Memorial Hospital, Inc. Process For determining compensation	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 The CEO (Executive Director), the CFO and the Director of Operations of Sturdy Memorial Associates, Inc. are compensated entirely through Sturdy Memorial Hospital, Inc. which is why there is no compensation reported on Form 990, Part VII, column D. The CEO and senior managers listed on the Form 990 are compensated on a merit system, as part of their compensation review in Sturdy Memorial Hospital, Inc. The CEO and senior managers prepare goals at the start of each fiscal year and are evaluated for merit increases based on those goals and their accomplishments relative to the goals. The CEO's accomplishments (relative to the established goals) are documented in an annual report which is submitted to the Chairman of the Board of Managers. The Board Chairman is provided with comparative market data obtained through compensation surveys prepared by an independent consultant specializing in such matters. The comparative data is for similar hospitals in Massachusetts and is sent directly from the independent consultant to the Board Chairman. The data includes comprehensive salary and benefits information for CEOs and senior managers (key employees) including comparison of base pay, incentive pay, benefits and total compensation. In addition, the Chairman is provided with performance information for Massachusetts hospitals obtained through the Massachusetts Center for Health Information & Analysis. The Hospital's Vice President of Human Resources provides the Chairman with the CEO's current actual salary and benefits. The Chairman of the Board of Managers provides the above information along with the annual report of the CEO's accomplishments (relative to established goals including the hospital and the Associates) and a history of the CEO's compensation to the Executive Committee which serves as the Compensation Committee for this purpose. The Executive Committee reviews the comparative data for the CEO base salary, bonus (incentive) and total compensation along with the survey data for benefits. Based on the goals achieved and the comparative data provided, the Executive Committee votes to approve the salary, bonus and benefits of the CEO. A summary of the discussion and the decision of the Executive Committee are reflected in the meeting minutes. The Chairman of the Board of Managers communicates the decision regarding compensation changes in a letter to the Vice President of Human Resources to execute the change. The CEO uses comparative market data, obtained from an independent consultant, for the hospital senior managers. The CEO compares the senior managers' current base salary and bonus (incentive pay) to the survey data. The senior managers' performance is evaluated based on the goals established at the start of the year. The CEO determines the base pay amount and bonus for each senior manager based on performance and the compensation survey. Base salary and bonus payments for each senior manager, including
