Name: CHARLOTTE HORNETS FOUNDATION INC

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 463,690 including grants of $ 386,309) (Revenue $)

Activities Generally, the foundation used its relationship with the players, coaches, and management of the Charlotte Hornets NBA team as a platform to raise awareness about the importance of Literacy, Education, Health and Fitness, Military Care and Hunger. The Foundation hosted the My Hero Gala to raise money for two causes. Half of the net proceeds from the event went to support the Charlotte Hornets Foundation while the other half of the net proceeds went to support the Novant Health Foundations community care cruiser. The community care cruiser is a 40-foot mobile clinic that provides immunizations and other clinical medical services to the uninsured and underinsured children in the greater Charlotte area. Grant Making Grant Making was the foundation's way of demonstrating and displaying the foundation's commitment to the priorities of the organization and community it serves. The foundation uses its community contacts to identify programs that have the largest impact to the Foundations mission. Grants to Child Care Resources Inc., CrossRoads Corporation, Freedom School Partners and the Charlotte Mecklenburg Library Foundation accomplished that objective. Education Education is a priority area for the foundation. Promotional campaigns such as billboards, in-arena public services announcements, as well as community public services announcements, posters, and informational literature were developed using players and coaches of the Charlotte Hornets, as well as community leaders as spokespersons to raise community awareness about literacy. Additionally, the foundation operated a Book Bus to encourage reading and learning programs for kids between the ages of 5 and 13. The bus carries approximately 3,000 books as it travels to elementary schools in the Charlotte area where Hugo the Hornet will perform an interactive and entertaining program that inspires students to pick up a book. After the program, students will be able to go through the Book Bus and pick out one new book to take home.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 2	The Vice Chairman, President, Executive Director, Secretary, Treasurer, and Chairman all have business relationships

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b	The Treasurer compiles the information for the tax service provider, Grant Thornton LLP. Grant Thornton LLP in turn, prepares the return and reviews it with the Treasurer. The Treasurer takes the return to the Foundation's executive director and provides the necessary explanations. The executive director performs a highly detailed review and completes his/her understanding by posing follow-up questions to the Treasurer. Once edits have been made and the 990 has been finalized, the executive director presents the 990 to the board of directors. The 990 is submitted to the IRS only after the board has approved the filing.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c	The Charlotte Hornets Foundation, Inc. has implemented a written conflict of interest policy. The policy applies to all persons in a position to influence the affairs of the corporation including without limitation, officers, directors, any person described as management personnel, any person who makes purchasing decisions on behalf of the corporation and any person who has proprietary information (each interested person). Immediate family members of interested persons and entities in which any interested person has a 30% ownership interest also are covered by this policy. An interested person must disclose the existence of his or her financial interest and must be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors, and members of committees with board delegated powers, considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. After an interested person discloses a financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, the interested person must leave the board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members decide if a conflict of interest exists. A conflict of interest always exists when a voting member receives compensation directly from the corporation. If it is decided that a conflict of interest exists, the interested person may make a presentation at the board or committee meeting. After such presentation, he/she must leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement that results in the conflict of interest. The chairperson of the board or committee then, if appropriate, appoints a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence (at least 3 comparable quotes, if applicable), the board or committee determines whether the corporation can obtain a more advantageous transaction or arrangement with reasonable efforts from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably attainable, the board or committee determines by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the corporation's best interest and for its own benefit and whether the transaction is fair and reasonable to the corporation. The board or committee makes its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement in conformity with such determination.
