regular emails to households across the nation. In addition, Family

Policy Alliance used telephone technology to alert citizens to important issues affecting the family in their state and developed online resources, including a website and web videos.

These communications were designed to rally Family Policy Alliance members and the general public to raise their voices on issues such as God's design for marriage between one man and one woman, the sanctity of human life from fertilization to natural death and the protection of religious freedom and rights of conscience.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4:

The organization has changed its name from CitizenLink to Family Policy

Alliance.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6:

According to its bylaws, Family Policy Alliance has one class of members.

Non-voting membership is open to individuals who support Family Policy

Alliance's purposes and policies. Membership may be obtained by (1) paying dues annually as prescribed by the Board of Directors, and (2) affirming annually the desire to be a member as prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Members shall not be entitled to vote. Voting for all purposes shall rest in the Board of Directors.

THE ORGANIZATION'S MISSION

FPA was organized as a religious corporation on April 2, 2004, and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act for religious purposes. FPA was formed to provide an educational service to parents and others who are concerned with healthy family living, toward the end of strengthening the family in its varied dimensions. The primary means of accomplishing these goals are periodical articles, direct mail to voters, the internet and events that share the message with members, churches and the public at large in the United States.

FPA is active in the promotion of social welfare by addressing the Christian community and the Christian's responsibility in the public policy arena, both locally and nationally. The organization uses regular media channels, such as radio, the internet, and events, to discuss critical legislation and policy matters that significantly impact Christian worldview issues. The organization is also used as a vehicle to discuss practical means for Christians to become educated and involved in public policy matters. The organization encourages Christians to be aware of and involved in their civic duties.

As a result, FPA advances biblical citizenship, equips and elects statesmen, promotes policy and serves an effective alliance, all committed to a common vision of a nation where God is honored, religious freedom flourishes, families thrive, and life is cherished.
