Part II, Line 17b - 10% Facts and Circumstances Test - Prior Year

The Organization meets the "Facts and Circumstances" test because they maintain a program for soliciting funds from the general public and the communities that they serve in. The Organization's goal is to assist in educating medical doctors with current information from research on how to test for the Pallister-Killian Syndrome and send out medical flyers. This is further supported by a very active group of Individuals in communities holding fundraisers and selling of merchandise.
