LINE 4C

Since FY11, Second Harvest Heartland has enhanced our outreach efforts to connect eligible people with public resources through various programs. Second Harvest Heartlands SNAP Outreach Specialists visit food shelves, soup kitchens, workforce centers and other organizations as well as participate in events to help people understand the program, and to break down barriers to participation—from lack of awareness to difficult application processes or other complications. In FY16, we assisted over 3,600 households with SNAP applications and re-certifications, adding more than 3 millions meals to families. The Summer Food Service Program is a meal reimbursement program that funds free meals to high-need children 18 and younger during the summertime. This USDA program, administered by the Minnesota Department of Education, provides children with more than 3 million meals at 874 sites (schools, parks, community centers) for children once school is out of session for the summer. Our staff conducts outreach efforts to increase awareness of SFSP, as well as administer 25 mini-grants program funding 204 meal-sites within our service area. At these sites, 590,951 meals were served by grant awarded sponsors. In 2016-2017 school year, Food + You, a school-based program that aims to increase availability of healthy food resources to students and their families partnered with 17 elementary schools in high-need areas of Minneapolis and Saint Paul. This multi-dimensional pilot program offers direct food distributions, support for accessing existing federal nutrition programs and connections to broader community resources.

PART I, LINE I & PART III, LINE 1	Our mission is to end hunger through community partnerships. In the years since our 2001 founding, Second Harvest Heartland has evolved from a food bank focused almost solely on food distribution, to a hunger relief agency that drives efficiency, innovation and collaboration. Today, Second Harvest Heartland is the largest hunger relief agency in the upper Midwest. In FY16, we distribute over 92 million pounds of food. Partnerships with retail donors, government agencies, corporations, foundations, and individuals coupled with leveraging efficiencies within our organization will allow us to continue to deliver more food. But the emergency food system can't solve the problem of hunger alone, so we are continuing to invest in community outreach efforts, or beyond the food bank initiatives, that connect those in need with the meals they need to live healthy, productive lives. These programs include the SNAP (the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, formerly known as food stamps) Outreach Program, through which Outreach Specialists visit food shelves, soup kitchens, and other organizations and events to help people understand the program, and to break down barriers to participation—from lack of awareness to difficult application processes or other complications. More than one in four people who qualify for SNAP are leaving their benefits on the table in Minnesota. That's the equivalent of nearly $210 million of already-funded food and financial assistance unclaimed which could also help Minnesota's economy. These initiatives also include USDA's SFSP—the Summer Food Service Program—a Minnesota Department of Education administered program that funds free meals to children 18 and younger during the summertime. We identify high-need areas annually in our collaboration with the Minnesota Department of Education using school free and reduced meal program data to promote our mini-grants program to eligible agencies and organizations, as well as planning our outreach efforts for the year, including contacting school districts about the program, etc. Second Harvest Heartland has dedicated staff to conduct outreach in targeted communities and provides mini-grants to organizations to help alleviate the barriers to participation. Fresh Food Increasingly, nutritious food is part of the Second Harvest Heartland offering, as retail partners and growers join hunger-relief efforts and continue to contribute record levels of perishable food. In fact, fresh foods comprised more than 55% of all food distributed throughout the fiscal year. Of this amount, more than 34.4 million pounds were distributed through the Food Rescue program—largely comprised of fresh food such as produce, meat and dairy options. Partnerships continued to be formed or expanded in FY16 with Minnesota growers and farmers, in an effort to begin to capture more of the 300 million pounds of crops—corn, potatoes, apples, watermelon, squash and more—that is either plowed under or unsold each year in our state. This year, the produce capture program collected more than 9.8 million pounds of sweet corn, potatoes, apples, cabbage, carrots, cucumbers, watermelon, tomatoes and other produce. Volunteer program Our volunteer program is a vital component of our efforts to bring more food to those who are hungry in our community. In the coming years we will need additional support from volunteers in order to support our continued growth in food distribution, particularly in the areas of our Food Rescue Program and Harvest to Home, which provide opportunities for us to provide increased nutritious food streams for those in need. As a result, over the next five years, the need for volunteers is expected to increase four-fold. In order to meet this rapidly growing demand, and to better serve our volunteers, Second Harvest Heartland is making significant changes and investments in our volunteer program. In FY16, we were able to engage nearly 29,000 individual volunteers who contributed more than 132,000 hours—the equivalent of 63 full-time employees. Volunteers play a vital role in other programming efforts packing boxes and helping to distribute them for our Commodities Supplemental Food Program (CSFP), and helping people apply for CSFP and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). Continued growth in our volunteer program is also required to continue to meet our goals for those in need. Hunger and Health To strengthen the effort to provide more food access and to reach more people, Second Harvest Heartland launched FOODRx in September 2016. This is a pilot project that connects food prescriptions and basic need services to low-income patients through the Minnesota healthcare system. The project is structured to allow it to be replicated with future partnerships between the hunger relief and health care sectors focused on improving the health and food security of patients through three interventions, including: - Acute: Immediately provide 72 hours worth of healthy food for acute care needs - Chronic: Provide disease-appropriate foods at repeatable bi-weekly or monthly boxes - Prevention: Connect patients to the existing community resources they need to be healthy & fulfill basic needs. The project is currently in a pilot phase and is not accepting/open to new participants from the general public. To learn more about what Second Harvest Heartland is doing to treat food as medicine within the health care system, visit 2harvest.org/FOODRx.
