Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 3	Thomas Health System, Inc. does not have any employees, and therefore does not establish the compensation of the organization's CEO. The Executive Compensation Committee, comprised of members who are free of any conflicts of interest, adheres to a disciplined process for reviewing compensation for senior executives to ensure that the compensation is reasonable. The Committee has retained an independent consulting and advisory firm, Yaffe & Company, to provide appropriate market data as to comparability. The Committee reviews comparability data and other relevant evidence and approves the compensation of senior executives, provided, however, that in the case of the CEO, the Board, after review of the comparability data and other relevant evidence, including a recommendation from the Committee, has the final approval with regard to the CEO's compensation. Only those Board members who are free of conflicts of interest vote on the CEO's compensation. All compensation decisions, including the comparability data reviewed and any other relevant information considered, are contemporaneously documented in meeting minutes.
