	Aquaculture Program - conducts projects to develop and grow the Indiana aquaculture industry. A direct result of this development and growth will be increased consumption of soybean meal in fish diets. In fiscal year 2016, this program focused on the following areas: Aquaculture Program Implementation, Education Outreach, Industry Relations, Producer Development, Market Analysis and Aquaculture Research Grants. Biodiesel Program - conducts projects to increase the availability and use of soy biodiesel. In fiscal year 2016, this program focused on the following areas: biodiesel support through educational materials and programs including the sponsored diesel mechanics program and biodiesel chemistry kits for high school students. Communications Program - conducts projects to establish the organization as a leading resource about soybeans to further the interests of soybean farmers and to support the work of all programs. In fiscal year 2016, this program focused on the following activities: farmer outreach, media outreach, and promotion of checkoff programs through sponsorships of field days, paid advertising, and magazine articles. Education Program - conducts projects to establish the organization as a leading resource about soybeans to further the interests of soybean farmers. In fiscal year 2016, this program focused on K-12 education programs, state fair, and partner youth organization such as FFA and 4-H. The training program works to develop communication trainings for soybean farmers around the state. Marketing Program - supports each program director in the development and implementation of strategic marketing communications plans that support the goals of each program and the organization collectively. This area focuses on external communications and is involved in crafting messaging, determining the target audience, brand development, and the implementation of tactical plans. Grain Marketing Program - conducts projects to maintain existing and develop new markets for soybeans and soybean products in order to ensure the long term viability of Indiana soybean farmers. In fiscal year 2016, this program focused on the following areas: transportation infrastructure including roads, bridges, and waterways, domestic market development, risk management, and international market development. Livestock Program - conducts projects to grow the Indiana livestock industry, a user of soybean meal. In fiscal year 2016, this program focused on the following activities: education, environment, livestock export expansion, and business expansion. New Uses Program - conducts projects in partnership with academia, scientists and industries to commercialize emerging technologies, provide funding for new concepts, and develop alternative markets and uses for Indiana soybeans. In fiscal year 2016, this program targeted the following activities: Concrete Sealer, Soy Wax, Student Innovation Competition, and Soy 3D Printer Filament. Production and Environment Program - supports on-farm demonstration programs and university-led research projects to develop tools and information to help soybean growers maximize their farm's performance. The production programs and projects focus on enhancing yields through fertilizer management, controlling pests and diseases, and exploring new traits. Environmental projects focus on sustainability efforts and nutrient issues. In fiscal year 2016, this program targeted activities such as Infield Advantage, Field to Market, North Central Soybean Research Program, university-led research, nutrient reduction strategy development, mapping and water quality and quantity efforts. Organization and Board Management - conducts board meetings, leadership development and program management and support to all programs and board of directors. Public Affairs - conducts projects and research educating the public and stakeholders on issues important to the soy industry and ISA strategic plan. In fiscal year 2016, this program targeted activities such as stakeholder engagement and organizational implementation. SPARC Administration - ensures compliance with the SPARC Act and Order and the governance of the Indiana Soybean Alliance. This program also processes all collections from first purchasers in Indiana and is responsible for auditing of those first purchasers.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	ISA is partially exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(6) and the Foundation is exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The LLC is a single member LLC whose single member is partially exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(6). ISA and consolidating entities apply accounting guidance related to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. This guidance requires ISA to recognize a tax benefit only if it is more likely than not the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the more-likely-than-not test, no tax benefit is recorded. ISA has examined this issue and has determined there are no material contingent liabilities or questionable tax positions. ISA does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly change in the next 12 months. ISA recognizes interest and/or penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. ISA did not have any amount accrued for interest and penalties at September 30, 2016.
