Pt I Line 4b

The supplemental executive retirement program (SERP) is a non-qualified deferred compensation program designed to provide additional market competitive retirement benefits that take into account an employee's total compensation without regard to the annual limit on compensation that applies under qualified retirement plans. The Board has reviewed and approved the SERP benefit, concluding that it is a market-competitive benefit and that total retirement benefits and total compensation are reasonable when compared to employees in comparable positions. For the reporting year the following persons participated in the SERP and received the following payments: Paul Pawlak - $300,072, Larry Johnson - $24,578.
