Part VI, Line 2	Every three years, Watertown Regional Medical Center (WRMC) performs a community health assessment in partnership with the City of Watertown, Dodge County and Jefferson County Health Departments as well as Fort Health Care. Our last needs assessment was completed in 2015. Public health data was used to identify the region's top health and safety needs. Input from a wide variety of community stakeholders was incorporated. Focus groups and a community forum were held. Priorities were identified in collaboration with our public health partners, community leaders, other health providers and community members representing diverse needs of the community. Results of the needs assessment were made publically available through a community forum, presentations to our healthcare community and our website. The following have been identified as our regions' greatest health needs: a Healthy Diet b Physical Activity c Mental Health d Alcohol/substance abuse. WRMC's Community Health Improvement Plan (CHIP) was developed in response to the needs assessment and approved by the WRMC Board of Directors in November, 2016. The CHIP is also posted on the WRMC website.
