In addition to promoting and educating people about corn and corn farming and the items necessary to conducting those activities, the PS team supports projects such as venues at the Minnesota State Fair, Children's and Minnesota Historical Society Museums, and some half dozen tradeshows each year. The PS team has and continues to sponsor work conducted by more than 100 community, state, regional and national groups. Expanded Uses (EU) Team The Expanded Uses team focuses on finding new uses for corn and corn co-products developed through milling and chemical processes. The EU team's research emphasis has been in the areas of environmentally friendly biopolymers & bioplastics, livestock and shrimp nutrition, co-product enhancement, biofuel engine performance testing, and value added green chemistry based technologies. The EU team continues involvement on the board and advisory committees of the National Agricultural Genotype Center. The Genotype Center will speed the beneficial advances in seed technology and inputs for the maize genome database. Communications Numerous communications via broadcast, web-based, outdoor, special event, and print media activities are conducted each year through Minnesota's corn organizations. The communications efforts result in millions of media impressions throughout the state and region in addition to base communications projects planned and executed each year. Focus teams and committees direct special projects to communications staff when they involve a communications component. These may range from straight forward, one-time newspaper advertisements associated with an event or tradeshow, to months-long, multi-partner, coalition-based campaigns. Communications staff also oversee social media activities for the organization and act as the point of contact for journalists.

Part X, Line 2	The Association has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(5). The Association is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the Association is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to its exempt purpose. The Association files an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS to report its unrelated business taxable income. The Association believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Association would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.
