The Sisters of Mary of the Presentation work for the glory of God by bringing the Word and Healing of Jesus Christ to all, with a special concern for the poor. In a shared ministry with the laity, the Sisters of Mary of the Presentation participate, through their health care mission in the work of healing which is, ultimately, the work of God. Their individual and corporate inspiration is Jesus and His Gospel message. Permeated with the Charism of the Sisters of Mary of the Presentation, they minister to one another and to all who come to them for care: those who suffer from physical, psychological, and social woundedness.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 3,652,944 including grants of $ 9,220) (Revenue $ 5,484,349)

Sisters of Mary of the Presentation Health System facilitates the management and operations of four related hospitals, a home health agency, and five related long-term care facilities which are located in North Dakota and Illinois. This includes fiscal and administrative responsibilities. We are a Catholic health system which in its diversity of programs and facilities consists of people who care and believe they can make a difference. Our concern is for all people, but the poor and elderly have a special claim on us. (Continued on Schedule O) From our limited resources we provide services characterized by excellence, compassion, and personalized concern. Because we care, we focus on the needs of the whole person, physical, spiritual, psychological, and social. Because we cannot do everything for everyone, we collaborate with others in order to meet the needs of the people in the areas where we serve. We live in a world of change and challenges and we know this will continue into the future. We are people of hope and commitment. The rich diversity of people, professions, skills, talents, and gifts enables us to continue the healing ministry of Jesus.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	SMPHS is organized as a North Dakota nonprofit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3). The entity is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the entity is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to its exempt purpose. The entity has determined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS. The entity believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The entity would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each Director must submit in writing to the Chairperson of the Board and the President/CEO a list of all business or other organizations of which the individual is an officer, director, trustee, member, owner (either as a sole proprietor or partner), shareholder with a 5% or greater interest in all outstanding voting shares, employee or agent, with which the organization has, or might reasonably in the future enter into, a relationship or a transaction in which the Director would have conflicting interests. Each written statement is resubmitted with any necessary changes each year. The Chairperson of the Board reviews the statements of the Directors and the Vice Chairperson of the Board reviews the statement filed by the Chairperson. When a conflict arises the affected Director makes known the potential conflict, whether disclosed by written statement or not, and after answering any questions, will withdraw from the meeting for as long as the matter continues under discussion. Should the matter be brought to a vote, the affected Director will not vote on it. In the event the Director does not withdraw voluntarily, the Chairperson of the Board has authority to require the Director to remove himself/herself from the room during both the discussion and vote on the matter. In the event the conflict of interest affects the Chairperson, the Vice Chairperson has authority to require the Chairperson remove himself/herself in the same matter. If the matter is the item of business for which a special meeting of the Board was called, the affected Director will not be counted to establish a quorum, and he/she will not participate in the deliberations or vote on it.
