Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	In 2009, NCEES introduced an award that rewards college engineering programs for engaging their students in collaborative projects with licensed professional engineers. The NCEES engineering award for connecting professional practice and education was established to promote understanding of the value of licensure and to encourage collaboration between the engineering profession and education. All EAC/ABET-accredited engineering programs are invited to submit projects that demonstrate a meaningful partnership between professional practice and education. To be considered, entries must be received at NCEES by each year's established deadline. Eligible entries will include the following: -A completed entry form, signed by your dean (or similar title) -An abstract (maximum one page) -A project description (maximum seven pages) organized as follows: Project description Collaboration of faculty, students and licensed professional engineers Benefit to public health, safety and welfare Multidiscipline and/or allied profession participation Knowledge of skills gained Development since previous submission (for resubmitted entries) The award jury is comprised of 12 representatives from academia and professional engineering associations as follows: -Four NCEES members (one from each geographic zone) -Four engineering deans (one from each geographic zone) -One representative from each of the following organizations: ABET (organization that determines accreditation of engineering programs) American Society for Engineering Education National Academy of Engineering National Society of Professional Engineers In 2016, NCEES introduced the NCEES Surveying Education Award that rewards college surveying programs that have a broad and robust curriculum to help students prepare for the fast-paced career as a Surveyor and the value of licensure. The award recognizes surveying/geomatics programs that best reflect NCEES' mission to advance licensure for engineers and surveyors in order to safeguard the health, safety, and welfare of the public. The NCEES surveying award was established to encourage programs to engage their students with other professionals, introduce them to both historical and new technology, and promote licensure. To be considered, entries must be received at NCEES by each year's established deadline. Eligible entries will include a completed entry form, signed by your dean (or similar title).

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Part I, Line 1a	The organization allows certain officers/directors of the organization to utilize business and/or first class travel options on flights of significant length. Flights are evaluated for qualification within the scope of the organization's policy and must meet length of travel specifications in order to qualify.
Part I, Line 4b	The organization maintains a supplemental nonqualified deferred compensation plan for top executives and senior management. The general purpose of the plan is to provide certain benefit amounts, the receipt and taxation for which shall be deferred. The organization makes annual contributions to the plan by crediting participant's account with such contribution for each plan year that a participant is employed by the organization. The amount of such annual contribution shall be determined by the administrative committee, in its sole discretion for each participant. Vesting dates are determined by the administrative committee. Generally, the administrative committee is the chief executive officer of the organization, the chief financial officer, the accounting manager, and a fourth individual that is not covered by the plan. Deferred Compensation for fiscal year 2015-2016 was: Jerry Carter - 29,436; Steven Matthews - 16,624; Davy McDowell - 18,789; Tim Miller - 15,383; Donna Moss - 14,708; Nina Norris - 11,548; Betsy Pearson - 13,104.
Part I, Line 7	The Chief Executive Officer received a bonus payment based on performance at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. Employees received bonus payments based on performance at the discretion of management.
