Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Artadia provides unrestricted funds to artists in the form of grants between $4000-$20,000. Grantees are determined in a carefully monitored process by a panel of jurors by the merit of their work. The jurors are curators and established artists who review all applications and/or finalists and make their decision fairly as monitored by the Artadia staff. Grantees and the grant sums are confirmed by the program committee made of Artadia board of directors. Grantees and residency participants submit a final report a year after grants are given.
