Campership program Each summer the Organization helps economically disadvantaged children and physically and emotionally challenged children from the greater Bay Area and from various ethnic backgrounds attend outdoor and overnight camp programs. During their time away from home, they learn to appreciate the outdoors, participate in group activities, and experience, perhaps for the first time, the joy and excitement of just being a child. Annually, these activities provide children access to academically, culturally, and athletically enriching activities that they otherwise would not attend. The Organization has a strict application process designed to ensure that the most qualified agencies meeting certain qualifications are funded. The Organization generally seeks to fund camps with a guidance-oriented approach where the counselors emphasize values inherent in the relationship between boys and girls and their peers, where the counselors assist the campers in making appropriate and satisfying adjustments in their physical, education, personal, social, emotional, vocational, and spiritual lives.

Scholarship program The Guardsmen Scholarship Program was started in 1998 in an effort to provide a better education and a better chance in life to disadvantaged Bay Area youth. The program pays 50% of tuition, up to a maximum of $2,000 annually, for their recipients to attend the private school of their parents' choice. Children can enter the program between kindergarten and the 6th grade. Once they are accepted into the program, they may only receive funding each year through high school if they reapply and continue to meet the eligibility requirements. This program supported 256 children and 73 schools in eight Bay Area counties for the year ended September 30, 2016, and 240 children and 69 schools in eight Bay Area counties for the year ended September 30, 2015. All recipients qualify as economically disadvantaged under Federal guidelines. New recipients are chosen by lottery, and parents or guardians are expected to shoulder a portion of the tuition.
