IH supports humanities programs throughout Indiana. The activities of IH are designed to promote educational public programs in the humanities that encourage Hoosiers to think, read and talk. Using literature, history, philosophy and Indiana's shared cultural heritage, IH strives to help Hoosiers better understand themselves and the world around them.

The Next Indiana - A thematic initiative for 2014-2016, Indiana Humanities created new programs and resources inspired by the Indiana bicentennial to help Hoosiers think, read and talk about our history and our future. This included Next Indiana Campfires, a series of treks around the state that connected literature and nature, and the Next Indiana Bookshelf, a set of books-fiction, nonfiction, essays and poetry-all of which have a strong connection to Indiana.

ALL-IN is a competition that challenges Hoosiers to think, read, talk and do. The program was inspired by the Indiana Civic Health Index, which revealed lower than average results in areas such as voter participation and registration, as well as working with neighbors to solve problems. ALL-IN inspires us to learn more about Indiana, connect with each other and make our state even better. There are now numerous ways to go ALL-IN. Hoosiers can participate individually, as a group, business or community! Hoosiers primarily participated through IH-funded community "block parties organized by nonprofits across the state.

Quantum Leap - Through our new statewide initiative, called Quantum Leap, we will explore and celebrate the spirit of possibility and problem-solving that occurs when we bridge the humanities with science, technology, engineering, math and medicine (STEM) We'll look at global and local issues through a humanities lens to engage Hoosiers in discussions about moral and ethical dilemmas, learn more about how we accept and embrace change (or don't), and more

Novel Conversations is a free statewide lending library Indiana Humanities lends more than 600 titles, primarily fiction and biography, to reading and discussion groups all over Indiana, free of charge, such as public and school libraries, senior centers, churches, or formal or informal book clubs IH also provides an application-based speakers program that awards stipends to nonprofits in order to host authors in their communities

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	IH is exempt from Federal and state income taxes on related income under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and related state law. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by IH and recognize a tax liability if IH has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by various federal and state taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by IH and has concluded that as of October 31, 2016 and 2015, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements. IH is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. IH is generally exempt from income taxes. However, IH is required to file Federal Form 990 - Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax and a corresponding state return, which are informational returns only. IH has filed federal and state income tax returns for periods through October 31, 2015. These income tax returns are generally open to examination by the relevant taxing authorities for a period of three years from the later of the date the return was filed or its due date (including approved extensions).
