1 Briefly describe the organization’s mission

The Minnesota Humanities Center (Humanities Center) is an independent, not-for-profit organization. Its mission is to build a thoughtful, literate, and engaged society. Financial support for the programs and services of the Humanities Center comes from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the State of Minnesota, private and corporate foundations, individuals, and revenue earned from fees and conference center rentals. The Minnesota Humanities Center provides humanities-based professional development services to schools and educators and it works in partnership with numerous organizations to conduct meaningful and engaging public humanities programming in communities throughout Minnesota. Its relationship-based approach to humanities programming is focused on bringing into public life the stories and experiences of people and communities that have been missing and marginalized.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No
If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No
If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization’s program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a	(Code)	(Expenses $ 6,187,365	including grants of $ 1,803,288	(Revenue $ 72,870)
The Minnesota Humanities Center is a nonprofit that collaborates with organizations and individuals to inspire community conversations, forge deep connections, and illuminate authentic, diverse voices across Minnesota, especially those left out or marginalized. We work to build a thoughtful, literate, and engaged society through education, partnerships, and public programs. The Humanities Center offers a new way to think about our future - grounded in the humanities. Our state is rapidly changing and growing even more diverse. The Humanities Center's approach affirms we're all in this together - using philosophy, literature, music, history, and language - we focus on what unites us not divides us. The Humanities Center helps people listen, connect, and understand each other better. We gather all voices and make clear that all narratives, including those that have been long absent from our education and public awareness, belong to the great human story. During the past year, the Minnesota Humanities Center has used its' funds in three key program areas: Minnesota Education Strategy, Veterans' Voices, and Water/Ways. Minnesota Education Strategy is at work in Minnesota and has proven results that address contemporary issues in education from a humanities foundation. It is based on the reality that relationships are fundamental to learning and exist within cultures. This empowers educators to build relationships with students and communities to increase student engagement. The Education Strategy helps educators, students, and parents create success by closing the relationship gap that undercuts efforts to eliminate disparities in academic achievement. In the last twelve months the Humanities Center served more than 5,803 Minnesota educators in 36 events, positively impacting the lives of more than 258,814 students in Minnesota. * 40 educators participated in the Educators Institute immersed in the Humanities Center's proven approach to increase student engagement through absent narratives. This experience prepared Minnesota educators to develop meaningful connections with their students and implement practical classroom strategies to bring absent narratives pedagogy into practice. * More than 660 educators expanded their understanding of the world around them at humanities-based events such as "Blues Vision: African American Writing in Minnesota," "Increase Engagement Through Absent Narrative", and "Bdote Field Trips." * Over 500 educators were introduced to the Absent Narratives Resource Collection - an online searchable database of over 1,000 ready-to-use videos, teacher guides, and readings that help educators increase classroom engagement - through presentations and conference workshops. Veterans' Voices is a fast growing program that is changing the dominate narrative of Minnesota's Veterans. This program draws on the power of the humanities to explore and share the full life experiences of Veterans. It empowers Minnesota Veterans to speak in their own voices through storytelling, discussion groups, plays, literature, and the annual Veterans' Voices Award. * 25 Veterans who have gone above and beyond to make exceptional, positive contributions that improve the lives of Minnesotans across the state were honored at the 2016 Veterans' Voices Award Ceremony held on September 11, 2016. * More than 1,000 Minnesotans attended more than twelve public events, including plays, facilitated conversations, and storytelling performances that amplified, honored, and recognized the stories and contributions of Minnesotan Veterans in their own voices. Water/Ways and We Are Water MN is a partnership formed to tell Minnesota's water stories collaboratively, bringing together personal narratives, historical materials, and scientific information. Combining these ways of knowing water strengthens Minnesotans' relationships with and responsibilities to water. In the last twelve months, the Humanities Center partnered with six Minnesota host sites and communities: Prairie Woods Environmental Learning Center (Spicer), Nicollet County Historical Society (St. Peter), Goodhue County Historical Society (Red Wing), Audubon Center of the North Woods (Sandstone), Lanesboro Arts (Lanesboro), Becker County Historical Society (Detroit Lakes) to tour the Water/Ways exhibit with community engagement programming. In FY16, the tour traveled to three of the six host communities. * Content partners include Minnesota Pollution Control Agency, Minnesota Historical Society, Minnesota Department of Health, Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, and the Minnesota section of the American Water Works Association. * 2,315 community members experienced the exhibit. * More than 530 national, state, and local water stories collected. Legacy Programs and Purposes: The Minnesota Humanities Center received an appropriation from the Clean Water, Land and Legacy Amendment for programs and purposes for the 2015-2017 biennium. A portion of these funds are used for the Veterans' Voices program. Legacy Pass-through Appropriations: In 2016, the Minnesota Humanities Center administered 12 direct appropriations totaling $2,703,250 and six competitively awarded appropriations totaling $100,000 from the Clean Water, Land and Legacy Amendment for the 2015-2017 biennium. Grantees include cultural heritage organizations, children's museums, civics education organizations, the Minnesota State Council on Disability, the Kajoog Fanka Program, Ramsey County Parks Cultural Games, and the City of St. Paul Cultural Gardens.

The Humanities Center operates a full-service event center, as created by the State Legislature in 1996. In addition to housing programs of the Humanities Center, this restored architectural landmark serves as a gathering place for educators, social service providers, other non-profits, state colleges and universities, state agencies and community groups seeking to improve both their individual work and the quality of life for all Minnesotans, by providing high-quality, cost effective meeting and event space for educational and public programs and staff education and development. In the last twelve months, the Humanities Center hosted 338 meetings and events in its meeting and event spaces, serving over 8,500 people associated with local community organizations.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Compensation for the CEO is set by the Personnel Committee of the board. They compare compensation with publically available information for similar positions, either thru salary surveys or through review of 990's for other non-profits. There is a salary grade and range established for this position, as for all positions. Compensation is reviewed annually for all staff. A formal salary administration program is in place (salary ranges, job grades). Market comparisons are done formally on a periodic basis, published market surveys are reviewed annually and ranges adjusted as the MHC leadership determines appropriate. Individual compensation is recommended by direct supervisor and approved by the CEO for members of the leadership team, and by the leadership team for other staff, all are based on job responsibilities and performance. These recommendations then go to the Board personnel committee for review and approval, prior to the approval of the full budget by the board.
