Summary of Direct Charitable Activities

List the foundation's four largest direct charitable activities during the tax year. Include relevant statistical information such as the number of organizations and other beneficiaries served, conferences convened, research papers produced, etc.	Expenses
1 In this fiscal year, we partner with the AiXiaoYa foundation. AiXiaoYa Foundation is a registered non-profit organization approved by China Social Welfare Foundation. The foundation's mission is to bring love and warmth to underdeveloped rural mountain area's girls. Primary focus is to help with these little girls (more details can be found at http://aixiaoya.org/about/xyintro/). They have established multiple projects. Our contracted helper, Qian Tu, engaged with them and studied the various projects. Below are brief introductions, through Qian Tu's help. We finally decided to sponsor the first project for this fiscal year AiXiaoYa package. This project is launched with primary mission to make sure every poor rural mountain area's girls have clean underwear, grow up healthy and confident about themselves. Every little girl needs to improve their sexual awareness and be educated about the basics for protecting themselves against sexual abuse. This is achieved via delivery of AiXiaoYa packages.	9,980
2 Continue in help promoting Project Cornerstone ABC learning project for neighborhood elementary schools (asset building champions). Asset Building Champions program is Project Cornerstone's effective parent engagement program. It is composed of a preschool and elementary school strand, volunteers are trained in the developmental assets model for positive youth development, and prepared to read a specially selected children's book and lead related activities and discussions in classrooms each month. The program's goal is to help school communities achieve the following: Create a common language and vocabulary about student respect and behavior expectations among all members of the school community; students, parents and caregivers, teachers and staff. Help students develop skills to handle physical, verbal, relational and digital bullying and to STAND UP if they see someone else being bullied. (Click here to learn more about bullying) Increase the number of caring adults on campus so that	207
3 In summer of 2016, organized and hosted basketball training club among Boys in the age between 8-10, we have enlisted 12 boys to the mini training program. Basketball is a sport that requires size, strength, speed, agility, power, and lots of endurance. In addition, it requires a lot of skill so much so that it's difficult to take time away from practicing those skills. Our volunteer coaches are two senior middle school boys, who have years of experience in via training and community matches. The training is held in neighborhood schools' open court, since it is close to all the boys in the group and free of costs. The program activities are meant to add muscle mass, teach how to be fast and explosive, and to begin the process of getting in basketball shape, including basic drills learning, small group scrimmage practice, etc. The activity is organized throughout the summer weeks since parents are more flexible in time, and it is easier to organize so that kids can participate.
