Return Reference	Explanation
Use of grant monitoring procedures (Part I, line 2)	The orphanage Director oversees spending of grants received in accordance with written policies. The Executive Director receives monthly financial statements from grantee organization and advises the Director on any spending questions. Members of the Board's Finance Committee receive monthly financial statements from the Executive Director with comments and analysis of spending versus grantee organizations' budget and accomplishment of its program goals. The Executive Director travels to the location of the orphanage multiple times per year to work with the orphanage Director and observe operations. A majority of the Board of Directors visit the location of the orphanage at least annually to observe operations and volunteer their services.
