Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Foundation is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, income from certain activities not directly related to the Foundation's tax-exempt purpose is subject to taxation as unrelated business income. In addition, the Foundation qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization other than a private foundation under Section 509(a)(1). The Foundation did not have any unrelated business income at either December 31, 2016 or 2015. The Foundation periodically assesses the likelihood, based on their technical merit, that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period. The measurement of unrecognized tax positions is adjusted when new information is available, or when an event occurs that requires a change. Interest and penalties, if any, associated with unrecognized income taxes are classified as additional income taxes in the statements of activities. The Foundation did not identify any uncertain tax positions at December 31, 2016 and 2015. The Foundation is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.
