Part VI, line 11

Form 990, including the attachments, is prepared by an outside paid preparer. It is then presented to the Commander and the governing body. It is reviewed and signed off by the Chair of the Audit Committee. At the next scheduled monthly meeting, an announcement is made and written into the Minutes that the Form has been filed and is available in the club's office, upon request, for a review and viewing by the club's members in good standing.

Part VI, line 19

All governing documents, policies and the financial statements are available during the business hours for review by the members in good standing. All records are maintained in the club's office and, upon the freedom of the information request, are available for public viewing. The copy of the completed Form 990 is transmitted to the parent organization in New York City. The public viewing announcement is on the parent's web site.

Part XII, line 2(c)

The Constitution and the By-laws mandate every two years the election of a three member Audit Committee. The committee oversees the management of the club. The committee members meet quarterly to examine the financial records and the club's operations; and subsequently present a report at the monthly meeting. They are present at the Executive Board meetings and partake in the discussions of the financial and economic matters of the club. They schedule meetings between themselves and are empowered to call a meeting with the Executive Board to examine and evaluate the club's financial and material data. The Chair has the right to demand information from the officers. The Chair also has the authority, if deemed necessary, to present to the membership a petition for an independent audit.
