Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Educational events are held that offer opportunities for interactive networking. The annual conference and other meetings are resources for information about the Alexander Technique and provide a learning environment concerning the requirements for teacher certification. In addition, other meetings and expenses are necessary to plan for future programs and to assess present program activities. Membership benefits include a periodic newsletter, teacher profile listings on the website, and reduced professional liability insurance.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Website hosting, development, and support are provided. The public is provided with information about the Alexander Technique and members can list classes they offer. Other features include archived journal articles, Board and Committee activity updates, teacher profile pages, continuing education logs, and the latest news from the AmSAT office.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

The newsletter is a publication that includes articles about the Alexander Technique, organizational news, and a forum for discussion of current issues in the profession
Books and other publications related to the Alexander Technique are also available
