Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

TO PROVIDE HOUSING FOR LOW INCOME PERSONS NDC conducts training and provides counseling and technical assistance to disadvantaged communities and nonprofit organizations in support of providing housing for low-income persons. During the year, NDC worked with more than 100 communities and nonprofit organizations and provided training to more than 1,800 practitioners in housing development for low-income persons and in low-income communities. Our technical assistance provided to nonprofit service providers and community organizations and through NDC's nonprofit housing affiliate and low income housing fund spurred $89.6 million in NMTC equity investment that resulted in public and private sector financing totaling more than $200 million, creating or rehabilitating 1,080 housing units for low income persons, families, the elderly, and persons with special needs. Through our housing development affiliates, NDC has developed over 9,520 units of housing for low income and disadvantaged persons. Collaborating with communities and/or local not-for-profits, housing authorities and for profit developers we initially evaluate the role that we should play in a particular affordable housing project, identify the development team, design the project and structure and close the financing. More than 60% of our projects are undertaken with not-for-profit partners and over 35% of our projects are located in rural areas across the country. While the majority of our projects involve new construction, we have completed numerous rehabilitations and historic rehabilitations. A sample of some of our projects that we are working on or have completed over the last several years include:

- Working with the State of Connecticut Housing Finance Agency and the Connecticut Department of Housing, NDC is continuing to manage the Connecticut Housing Academy, which provides training, technical assistance, and financing under the State's affordable housing creation and preservation program. The program is designed to build new and keep existing affordable housing units that have completed their regulatory compliance periods from becoming market rate housing. In March of 2016, NDC closed the first $31.8 million of a three-phase rehabilitation and adaptive-reuse of the historic Ponemah Mills in Norwich, CT. The mill is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is situated in the Last Green Valley, a National Heritage Corridor. The total project when completed will occupy 650,000 square feet but this first phase includes 116 units of mixed-income rental housing. The funding for the project included both Low Income Housing Tax Credits and Historic Preservation Tax Credits.
- In Augusta, Maine, NDC invested in the Coney Flatiron Senior Residence project, an adaptive re-use of a former high school, which created forty-eight units of affordable housing for the areas growing senior population. The Coney Flatiron Senior Residences was awarded a prestigious Timmy Award for excellence in historic preservation.
- In rural Lincoln County, Nevada, NDC invested $5.5 million for the consolidation and rehabilitation of three projects totaling 52 units into one commonly managed project. The units are available to individuals and families earning between 30 to 60 percent of Area Median Income. The project was financed through a combination of equity raised through the sale of Low Income Housing Tax Credits and loans from the USDA and HUD. In addition to the rehabilitation of the units, solar panels were installed over carports to reduce electric both costs, and the projects carbon footprint.
- In Detroit, Michigan, NDC invested $7.6 million into a new construction project that created twenty-eight two and three bedroom townhome units. The Mack-Ashland II project, developed by the nonprofit Southwest Housing Solutions, will set aside eight units for permanent supportive housing, five units for families earning 40% of Area Median Income (AMI) and fifteen units for families earning 60% of AMI. The project is being constructed on cleared land in a blighted neighborhood where derelict abandoned homes once stood.
- Working with the National Rural Housing Coalition, Rural LISC and various state affordable housing coalitions, NDC provides continuing technical assistance and financial support to rural housing organizations across the nation.
