4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 219,147 including grants of $ 20,968) (Revenue $ 257,886)
We coordinate art teachers and their students to volunteer in creating artistic portraits for children living in difficult circumstances around the world. This is our organization's sole program. Everything we do, every dollar we receive, and every dollar we spend is for this sole activity.

We spend zero dollars on fund-raising, as nearly all of our revenue comes in the form of small contributions from the art teachers and art students who volunteer to create the children's portraits. Typically our volunteers contribute $10 - $15 with every portrait to help cover all of the program's expenses.

In 2016 we coordinated approximately 17,000 artistic volunteers to create portraits for children in seven different countries.

We partner with foreign charities caring for children in difficult circumstances. In this, we provide these charities with small grants of several thousand dollars each to help them pay their staff members and other expenses related to collaborating with us. Specifically, every organization that partners with us needs to take and label photos of many hundreds of children. Our volunteer artists then study those photos in order to create the artistic portraits that we ultimately deliver as gifts to the children.

We monitor the use of these small grants to these foreign charities simply by observing that they have succeeded in taking and labeling all the photos of the children for the project.

In 2016, we gave a total of $20,968 in grants to seven different foreign charities, but we did not give more than $5,000 to any one individually.
