conflicts as described in the policy. The Executive Vice President and the CFO review the forms and disclosures for all members of the Board and staff, respectively. For the Board members, the Executive Vice President makes a summary of the results and gives them to the Board for review. The Board makes a determination as to whether the perceived conflict is real or not. We have not had a real conflict in the last years, but if we did, the nature of the conflict would be reviewed by the Board, and appropriate actions would be taken (depending on the type of conflict) to eliminate the conflict (This could be as simple as the Board member recusing him/herself from a decision, to disposing or terminating the conflicting relationship). For employees, the management committee would review the conflict and perform a similar function to resolve the conflict.
