Part VI, Line 11 Board members, staff and volunteer bookkeeping staff are involved in gathering the information for the operations and various programs of The Journey Home. Board members are presented the Form 990 via email and it is then reviewed at board meeting. Additionally, we review financial information at each board meeting and we have an independent auditor who reviews the accounting and prepares final statements for board review. Former board member (retired CPA) continues to be involved in bookkeeping and monitoring financials throughout the year.

Part VI, Line 12 The Journey Home has a conflict of interest policy and each board member is required to review and sign acknowledgement of it at first board meeting of each year. Forms are kept on file. Notes are kept in board meeting minutes regarding any conflicts that arise and the actions of members affected.

Part VI, Line 15 The board evaluates the salaries of the senior managers and the executive director evaluates other employees. A subgroup has recently gathered non-profit salary information for the local area for review. We also used a guide from MTSU when establishing salary plan. Board also reviews the items as part of budget review.

Part VI, Line 19 The Journey Home keeps a copy of the 990 on file at the office for public review. The policy manual is available for clients or others interested parties to view at the office. Policy information is also included on program applications and brochures. Code of Conduct items are posted in lobbies. Financial reporting is also posted on -line at Guidestar.org and GivingMatters.com.

Part III, Line 4 We have chosen to aggregate individual services as outreach center services because they are collectively part of a broad array of services that are tailored to meet individual client needs at our outreach center.
