		South Asia	The Dien Ban Day Centre is a holistic-care development project that aims to strengthen local services and support for families with children living with disabilities in the poor, rural area of Dien Ban, Central Vietnam. Operated by the Kianh Foundation (KF), the day center was established in April 2012 to provide a purpose-built center for children with disabilities in this area. This area is traditionally a large catchment area for children being put into government orphanages. Furthermore, during the Vietnam War, Dien Ban was in the 10% most heavily bombed districts and was extensively sprayed with dioxins. As a result, along with widespread poverty, Dien Ban has extremely high occurrence rates of disability, special needs and congenital disorders - but has next to no services. The center provides the children with education, physio, speech therapy, and life-skills training, within a caring and supportive environment. Very importantly, it keeps the children with their families.	6,997	Wire Transfer
