990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect the organization's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or trustee of the organization or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. The policy is intended to supplement, but not replace, any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to non-profit and charitable organization. Interested persons must disclose any actual or possible conflict of interest to the board. When actual or potential conflict of interest issues are discussed or voted on the interested person abstains from these activities. To ensure that the Corporation operates in a manner consistent with its charitable purposes and that it does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews of potential conflicts of interests are conducted. The periodic reviews, at a minimum, include the following subjects: (a) Whether Compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining, and (b) Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further the Corporation's charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an Excess Benefit Transaction.
