Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

EMPOWER YOUTH AND FAMILIES IN RURAL UGANDA THROUGH EDUCATION AND ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 54,827 including grants of $) (Revenue $)
ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT OVERVIEW The second programming block of Into Your Hands-Africa is enterprise development Enterprise stimulates income generation and self-sufficiency through smallholder enterprise projects where participants learn valuable business skills and generate revenue to cover their financial needs The organization supports family units, students, and community members through projects in farming or animal husbandry Participants of this program receive business and animal husbandry training courses, veterinary services or agricultural advisement and an enterprise project in piglets/chickens, seedlings, or coffee/mango plants The impact of this project is immediate and sustainable for the family and also for future generations of families who are increasing their financial sustainability and food security To date, projects have included Send-a-Piglet-Home, Send-a-Chicken-Home, Send-a-Goat-Home, Clonal coffee and mango projects Individual projects provide sustainability for future project beneficiaries through a pass-on system where a portion of the earnings from the original project is given as reimbursement to the organization in the form of plant seedlings or animals Income generated through this project allows the beneficiary to expand their business in addition to supporting incurred family expenses such as health charges, school fees, and other relevant costs Beneficiaries are supported through initial training workshops, mentorship opportunities, veterinary services, and top-off trainings that include best practice training of their project Beneficiaries are responsible for providing an acceptable shelter for the animal or clearing the land and digging holes for agricultural-based projects In 2016, Into Your Hands-Africa distributed 350-enterprise project to a total of 188 students and families

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 50,609 including grants of $) (Revenue $)
EDUCATION OVERVIEW The organization supports a formal education program by partnering with secondary schools in order to achieve key goals in matriculation, retention, graduation rates, academic performance and school income An agreed-upon Memorandum of Understanding between the school and Into Your Hands-Africa determines the partnership All schools receiving a block grant must demonstrate strides in operating independently over time The organizations current partners are St Denis Secondary School and St James Secondary School in Makando, Uganda Into Your Hands-Africa support students of all grade levels with an emphasis on girls education Successful students who complete senior 4 grade level can apply for an additional scholarship to continue their studies at a vocational level This is an opportunity provided to less than 5% of the Ugandan student population All in all, in 2016 200 students received scholarships and/or life skills workshops from Into Your Hands-Africa Additionally, this past year Into Your Hands-Africa expanded its vocational training program to a total of 14 students The vocational training program aims at boosting vocational education as a means of overcoming high unemployment rates by providing opportunities for hands on, skilled education that allows youth to compete in the job market or become job creators themselves The program encourages students to return to the village and serve their communities once they graduate This year the organization partnered with four vocational schools in fields of farming, primary teaching, hairdressing, electrical technician, and veterinary services Based on a 100% graduation rate from the first cohort of students, Into Your Hands-Africa anticipates further expansion of this program in the near future In an effort to support schools in becoming accredited, Into Your Hands-Africa also provides an educational infrastructure program that supports capital improvements to partner schools Past projects have included water and sanitation facilities, construction of school buildings, development of sustainable energy solutions, and the acquisition of information technology

4c (Code) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)
COMMUNITY OVERVIEW Enterprise activities must occur within a supportive social context, as such, the third programming block of Into Your Hands-Africa is the Community Development Association (CDA) program Self-sustainability, empowerment, and community leadership are the organizations top priorities With this in mind, Into Your Hands-Africa encourages the community members to establish their own community development cooperatives in partnership with local stakeholders and community leaders The CDA program supports a shift from subsistence farming to commercial agriculture and animal husbandry by featuring three key elements educational workshops and vocational training, (2) home visits where participants observe other successful enterprise development activities, and (3) internships and mentoring where participants have the opportunity to apply what they have learned in workshops and home visits This program has contributed to the economic health and vitality of the community while supporting food security and expanding local organic farming practices that occurs in a supportive context Over the past year, Into Your Hands-Africa has supported more than 750 community members participating in the Community Development Association program across 70 villages in Ndagwe and Kisekka sub counties In 2016, IYHA also began a women's enterprise pilot focusing on marginalized poverty level females with little to no formal education This project increases access to opportunities for young women, which in turn increases the pipeline of educated girls/women, who grow into actualized women and become leaders in their communities This project supports entrepreneurial and vocational training for Ugandan females so they learn and cultivate the skills needed to become self-sustaining, employed citizens IYHA's distinctive approach combines classroom education, business exposure and workable skill building upon mentorships and group support with other successful women entrepreneurs These elements along with ongoing support from IYHA on-the-ground staff work in tandem to support success and improve the local community economy Project partners have developed a unique curriculum that incorporates the feedback and visioning of the very women who will be served so that it is relevant to their specific needs It features women entrepreneurs leading younger women creating generational changes to impact the community in future years The program allows all women to participate, regardless of their past educational attainment Through this work, women are empowered to create their own businesses, to become financially self-sustaining, and to break social and economic barriers for the next generation of girls In 2016, the womens enterprise pilot program supported over 55 women through individual business training workshops
