Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Single Stop harnesses Americas most effective anti-poverty tools to create economic mobility for low-income families and individuals. Through a unique one-stop shop, Single Stop provides coordinated access to a safety net, financial aid and community based services offered colleges, community-based organizations, hospitals and other service partners with training, evaluation, program support, and technology. Those tools empower Single Stop sites to offer clients free wraparound, life sustaining services including public benefits and local services screening, application assistance, case management, tax preparation, and legal and financial counseling. Single Stop has created a powerful network that utilizes our engagement model and digital platform to connect those in need with resources to help them lift themselves out of poverty. Since 2007, we have connected over 1.4 million households to over $3.6 billion in assistance. A recent study of one of our higher education partners showed an ROI of 20:1 - for every dollar invested into Single Stop education sites students drew down $20.50. An additional study of a higher education partner showed that Single Stop is associated with improved outcomes for community college students. Comparing students who used Single Stop to students who did not, showed that Single Stop students were more successful than others. Findings revealed that not only did Single stop users(of any Single Stop Service) have persistence rates 3% higher than other students, but overall, Single Stop users attempted an average of .38 more credits than non-users. Student who received Single Stop tax services are estimated to persist at rates 15% higher than comparable students who did not receive tax services.
