Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Constituency Development Program The Conservation Lands Foundation makes grants under our Constituency Development Program We provide financial and training resources to support organizations working to protect, restore and expand National Conservation Lands The bulk of our resources in this program go to organizations that are in our Friends Grassroots Network Resources include, but are not limited to Grants for project-specific work, grants for general support and organizational development, fundraising support, including trainings and resource development, consulting for planning, policy or technical help, trainings for board and staff development, media and communications training, restoration projects and participation at our annual conference, the Friends Grassroots Network Rendezvous

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

National Monuments Campaign The Conservation Lands Foundation is leading efforts to permanently protect naturally, culturally and historically significant public lands around the West. To achieve this, we are building place-based, local proposals for new national monuments. Our work ensures that the voices of conservationists, business owners, sportsmen, tribes and others from these local communities are heard.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Communications and Policy Program The goal of the communications program is to build awareness and to communicate the values and beauty of the National Conservation Lands to the American people and beyond. CLF worked with the Bureau of Land Management to formally adopt more effective communications tools, and encouraged more media coverage of the National Conservation Lands. The Policy Program builds and conveys grassroots and national support for improved management policies. CLF also works with our partners to promote and defend policy advancements, restore and raise awareness of the National Conservation Lands.

Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	The Conservation Lands Foundation makes grants under our Constituency Development Program. We provide financial and training resources to support organizations working to protect, restore and expand National Conservation Lands. The bulk of our resources in this program go to organizations that are in our Friends Grassroots Network. Resources include, but are not limited to: Grants for project-specific work, grants for general support and organizational development, fundraising support, including trainings and resource development, consulting for planning, policy or technical help, trainings for board and staff development, media and communications training, restoration projects and participation at our annual conference, the Friends Grassroots Network Rendezvous. Due to overwhelming demand, participation in the Constituency Development Program is by invitation only. Grantees are required to submit reports that include a full narrative and financial report. Grant periods range from six months to one year.
