Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

CHILDREN SERVICES Lutheran Family Services was founded in 1892 to serve children in need, and children and families have remained at the heart of the organization in the subsequent 125 years. LFS is intentionally focused on young families, with programs that promote health, safety and self-sufficiency. It is the belief of LFS that the most efficient use of organization and community resources to halt abuse and neglect should be focused upon prevention and intervention services to avoid more expensive and intrusive residential and incarceration services. This is especially important for children. In 2016, 1,388 children and parents received early intervention/prevention services via incentives through LFS' three Centers for Healthy Families, located in North Omaha, Fremont and Council Bluffs, Iowa. The Centers' programs serve families with children under age five and expectant mothers. The program reduces the risk factors that lead to childhood abuse and neglect through education, therapy, support groups and other resources, thereby increasing safety and well-being. All of the Centers offer specialized early childhood mental health programs which include therapies for children who have been victims of, or witnessed trauma, as well as therapies to help parents attach to their children and reduce the chance of abuse and neglect. The RSafe program treated 306 children and their families impacted by child sexual abuse in 2016, including children with problematic sexual behaviors. A consistent recidivism rate of 0-1% shows that the program is effectively making a difference in breaking the cycle of child sexual abuse. Additionally, LFS trained 98 professionals and clinicians in child sexual abuse treatment. LFS offers individual, family and group therapy, as well as consultation and collaboration with numerous agencies, including child welfare organizations like Project Harmony in Omaha and the Child Advocacy Center in Lincoln. Group therapy helps children and youth understand root causes of negative behaviors and take responsibility for their actions, develop and practice skills to end sexually abusive behavior, practice positive socialization with peers and develop a more healthy sense of self. In coordination with RSafe, support groups are offered to help parents and children cope with the impact of sexual abuse upon the family. Children's Mental Health Services provide trauma-informed behavioral healthcare and substance use disorder treatment for children and families. The vast majority of clients accessing care in this program have been exposed to some form of trauma, and frequently live in poverty and in areas of high need. Family therapy and interventions with caregivers help to eliminate the potential for future adverse experiences leading to toxic stress. Adoption services and information, as well as pregnancy counseling, are available at all offices across the state. LFS is also the exclusive Nebraska affiliate of Wendy's Wonderful Kids (WWK), the signature program of the Dave Thomas Foundation for Adoption. WWK aggressively seeks permanency for youth in foster care. LFS works full-time recruiting foster care families and families who wish to adopt children currently in foster care, and offers on-going training and retention programs. Children Services provides emergency and agency-based foster care placements and licensing, and 24-hour emergency support. Through the Right Turn program, a collaboration with Nebraska Children's Home Society, help for all Nebraska post-adoptive and guardianship parents is provided statewide. These 24/7 post-adoption services provide case management, mentoring, support, support groups, education and other services as necessary. LFS Family Support Liaisons, in partnership with the Learning Community of Douglas and Sarpy Counties, work with children and at-risk families to reduce truancy and other barriers to learning. Other programs within Children Services include maternal health and in-home services, which encompass family support and safety. The maternal health care office in Lexington provides abstinence education in high schools, HIV/AIDS education and STD prevention, as well as free pregnancy tests. In-home services provide support to assist with parenting and home management problems that place children at risk of abuse and neglect. Specialists help families achieve a healthy and safe home environment, enhance communication skills, manage aggression and anger and achieve self-sufficiency. In 2016 LFS managed 4,317 Children Services cases.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES Lutheran Family Services offers a continuum of behavioral health services to meet the needs of clients across the state. LFS offers some form of therapeutic support at every office location and serves many specialized populations, including those with severe mental illness or disorders. LFS At Ease provides confidential trauma treatment and therapeutic support to active military, veterans and their loved ones. LFS At Ease therapists are specially-trained in treatment practices known to be effective in addressing Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and other trauma-related disorders. No individual is turned away due to inability to pay. LFS At Ease has served hundreds of individuals since its inception in June 2009 and is now available in six Nebraska cities. Through crisis response programs in Douglas, Washington and Dodge counties, LFS mental health counselors provided 24/7 backup for law enforcement officers, serving 415 in 2016. Health 360 Integrated Care, in partnership with a federally-qualified health center, People's Health Center, provides primary care, mental healthcare, dental services and an on-site pharmacy to holistically serve consumers in Lincoln, Nebraska. Other services include substance use disorder treatment and evaluations and intensive outpatient treatment programming which provides individual, family and group support and addresses issues of alcohol and drug dependency, psychological disorders, depression, trauma recovery and managing disorders and illnesses with appropriate medication. LFS provides multiple levels of behavioral health interventions, including Community Support and Emergency Community Support. Community Support services help individuals suffering from severe and persistent mental illness to live more independent and functional lives. This long-term support program helps clients achieve stability in the community, improve their personal and community functioning, enhance their skill development and increase their residential stability. Emergency Community Support is a short-term service that provides crisis stabilization and support, creates a relapse prevention plan, promotes self-care, living skills and helps the clients recover from their crises and move on to self-sufficiency. LFS Diversion programs in McCook and southeast Nebraska worked with 70 first-time juvenile offenders in 2016, so they could learn from negative behaviors, make reparations and avoid criminal records that could negatively impact their lives. In 2016 LFS managed 8,123 Behavioral Health cases.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

COMMUNITY SERVICES Through this core competency, Lutheran Family Services provides high-quality direct and supportive services for our newest community members. Services help refugees, secondary migrants, immigrants, asylees and Special Immigrant Visa holders who supported the U.S. military in Iraq and Afghanistan acculturate and establish self-sufficiency in their new homes in Nebraska. As the largest refugee resettlement organization in Nebraska, LFS is a local affiliate resettlement site for both Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service and Church World Service. The program offers support, guidance and empowerment to guide these new citizen hopefuls to self-sufficiency within the first 90 days after arrival. The Reception and Placement program provides core resettlement services for refugees in accordance with the guidelines set down in a cooperative agreement with the US Department of State. Reception and Placement includes assistance with housing, food, initial medical screening and on-going healthcare needs, processing documents and obtaining benefits, cultural orientation, English language instruction, employment and enrollment in school. LFS resettlement services welcomed a record breaking 1,020 refugees from 16 countries to Nebraska in fiscal year 2016. In addition to resettlement services, LFS works with Employment First, the state's Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program, to ensure that all immigrant and refugee Employment First participants comply with the rules and regulations of the program. The International Center of the Heartland (ICH) in Omaha was created to help new Americans (refugees, secondary migrants, immigrants, asylees and trafficking victims) acculturate and establish self-sufficiency by providing assistance in securing stable housing and employment, as well as acting as an educational resource regarding health, nutrition, education, legal, employment and housing issues. ICH assisted 3,005 clients in 2016. LFS Immigration Legal Services helps individuals reunite or remain united with their families in the United States and provides assistance in obtaining US citizenship. As part of a statewide coalition, LFS offers one attorney and a BIA-approved network of immigration legal specialists. Immigration legal services are offered in Omaha and the LFS office in Grand Island. LFS AmeriCorps members provided 28,000 hours of service to refugees and other New Americans. In 2016, LFS served 6,277 clients through its programs serving those for whom the U.S. is not their country of origin, and who seek safety and a better future for their children and families.
