Part I, Line 5	One of our highly compensated employees is paid commission on new memberships
Schedule J - Expense reporting	The Bay Area Council has a written policy regarding expense report submission and reimbursement policy. None of the questions identified in 1 a above apply to the Council. All expenses must be supported by evidence of the type of expense, business purpose and receipts. Business trip travel requiring overnight stays require pre-approval. The Bay Area Council compensation policies and procedures for determining compensation are outlined in our Employee Policy Manual. Evaluations and approvals are secured for all staff members including the CEO and other officers. Approval is required. Regarding BAC employer contribution for health benefits, BAC provides uniform employer contributions for those individuals electing various health benefit coverage. The employer benefit may vary between employees because the employer contribution is depending upon whether an employee elects only for him or herself, for him/or her plus spouse, or full family coverage. Others may waive benefits because they are covered elsewhere in which case the employer contribution is less than what BAC provides or is zero if coverages are fully waived.
