MEDIA PROGRAM The It Gets Better Project works in all forms of media to bring messages of hope to LGBT youth and to spark conversations about the challenges they confront. The Project's online video collection and social media platforms remain at the center of its global messaging and outreach to youth. The videos have been viewed tens of millions of times, and feature celebrities, musicians, professional athletes, political leaders, and countless everyday LGBT people and their allies, representing all ages, races, religions, nationalities, gender identities, and sexual orientations. Every video offers a unique perspective, but the core message in each is the same: telling LGBT youth that, whatever their circumstances, it gets better. The Project also works to feature the it gets better message through television and film. In partnership with MTV and Logo, it produced a recurring special called It Gets Better, featuring the stories of LGBT young people, their struggles and achievements. As a result, the Project received an Emmy award for its use of the medium of television to achieve social good. The media program of the It Gets Better Project continues to ensure that the it gets better message is routinely featured in print journalism, radio and other forms of media, by working with news organizations around the world to promote the Project's activities and advance discussions about topics important to LGBT youth. Lastly, the Project inspired a New York Times best-selling book titled, It Gets Better: Coming Out, Overcoming Bullying, and Creating a Life Worth Living. The book is a collection of some of the early it gets better stories that are part of the Project's online video collection. Through the It Gets Better Schools and Libraries Project, over 1,500 copies of the book have been donated to school and community libraries around the country.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT PROGRAM The It Gets Better Project works directly in communities and collaborates with other organizations to connect LGBT youth with the resources they need and to leverage the Project's mainstream recognition to raise awareness and inspire change. The Project was created by harnessing the power of an ever-growing chorus of voices that banded together to share messages of positivity with LGBT youth. More than just sharing messages, however, the Project participates in pride events, LGBT-oriented conferences and a range of other activities to interact directly with LGBT young people and hear from them about the issues they feel are most important to them. The Project then identifies existing resources or collaborates with partners to develop new resources that address these needs. Through this collaborative approach, the Project has improved the visibility of well-established organizations that provide services for LGBT youth. It has also generated opportunities to focus on emerging issues ranging from the participation of LGBT youth in recreational and professional sports to transgender health and wellness. The Project acts as a bridge for LGBT youth to connect with the community that cares so deeply about them, and uses the power of working together to show LGBT youth a brighter future.

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 114,459 including grants of $ 12,870) (Revenue $)

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAM The It Gets Better Project brings messages of hope to LGBT youth around the world and works globally to inspire change in local communities. The It Gets Better Project has been international in scope since the first it gets better videos appeared online. Beginning in those early days, countless it gets better videos have been offered from supporters around the globe. The videos are diverse in language, culture, and political viewpoint, and feature a range of different issues, but they always demonstrate the unifying theme that it gets better. Building on the momentum of the international videos, the Project has supported programs to benefit LGBT youth on six continents. The programs are as diverse as the Project's collection of videos. They include a museum exhibit in South Africa featuring local it gets better videos, an award-winning film featuring a transgender lead character in Thailand, a program about addressing LGBT bullying at the U.S. embassy in Guadalajara, Mexico and participation in pride festivals in several European capitals. People around the world have found inspiration in the it gets better message, and through that inspiration, the Project continues to identify new ways to create resources and improve the lives of LGBT youth. The Project now also supports a growing network of more than a dozen international affiliates, from Chile and Portugal to Sweden and Australia, each of which uses the power of the it gets better message in its own unique way to facilitate change for LGBT youth. Through coordinated efforts both domestic and overseas, and working alongside its affiliates, the Project is able to bring the expertise of established organizations into regions where resources for LGBT youth are scarce.

Part X, Line 2	IOLA Foundation is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by IOLA Foundation in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. IOLA Foundation's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
