Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US	The organization requires all foreign grantees to prepare a pre-grant inquiry application to provide detailed information about the grantee's legal status, its operations, staff, and the purposes of the proposed grant project. The pre-grant inquiry also solicits the necessary information for OFAC anti-terrorism screening which is performed by the organization. The organization also has an internal procedure which it uses to monitor and assess potential risks in the region and grantee project. If a grantee is approved, the parties then enter into an international grant agreement to govern the use of the grant funds by the grantee. The agreement requires the grantee to maintain the funds in a segregated account and sets forth the specific projects to be conducted in accordance with Sec 501(c)(3). Following execution of the agreement, the grantee is required to submit regular financial and program reporting (quarterly and annual) with photos and supporting documentation which is reviewed by the board. The organization works to conduct yearly site visits to monitor the progress and use of the grant funds by grantee and also continually reviews and researches grantee organizations in accordance with anti-terrorism recommendations by the US Treasury.
