Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Thailand MinistryOur programs in Thailand are accomplished through grants to Life Impact Thailand Foundation, based in Mae Sot, Thailand The Foundation was organized in order to properly facilitate operations in the country See Schedule F for details about our grant-making and monitoring process In 2015, Life Impact Thailand Foundation was officially approved as a Thailand Government Recognized Safe Home The safe homes are on a 25 acre piece of land which is located on the new highway that runs through the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) The Foundation has the same legal authority as the police to rescue children that are trafficked in the areas spanning between China and Singapore The Foundation is officially the watchtower along the ASEAN highway to intervene on behalf of the victims of child trafficking The Life Impact Thailand Foundation provides every need for the children in their safe homes This includes house parents, food, all education and medical needs, clothing & hygiene supplies, and extracurricular activities such as sports and music programs

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Myanmar/Burma MinistryWe continue to care for 30 children in Yangon, Myanmar. We have a home for boys and one for girls. These 30 children were displaced and orphaned from Cyclone Nargis in 2008. For these children, we provide housing, food, medical, education, clothing & hygiene for each child in these homes. Since 2013, we have operated House of Hope, a drop-in center located in Myanmar. In 2016, the home continued to provide beds for about 20 street kids. It is a safe place for children to eat a warm meal, receive an education, and hear the Gospel. These children were once the thieves, scoundrels, and beggars on the streets. Now they are loved, safe, secure children who are excelling in school. Everyone in the community is seeing the change in their lives.

Christmas Outreach - In 2016, we continued our annual Christmas outreach during which we bring Christmas to orphans, displaced villagers, soldiers, men, women and children living inside Myanmar and along the war zone borders. Everywhere we go, we preach about the true meaning of Christmas and then we give the children a special surprise. The girls receive a doll and the boys receive a truck. For most of these children it is the first time they have ever received a gift in their lives. In 2016, we were blessed to bring Christmas to over 1,000 vulnerable children in Myanmar and Thailand. Every year we also hand out humanitarian aid supplies to the displaced villagers and impoverished families - including food, blankets, toiletries and clothes.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

General Ministry In 2016, we continued working hard to prevent child trafficking in Thailand. For many of the children we work with, going to school will significantly lessen their chances of being exploited. Education is an important key to a successful future because it will help them to rise above the cycle of poverty and discrimination that is so prevalent in many of the places in which we work. In 2016, we funded the protection and provision for approximately 150 children in the rescue homes we support, and helped over 500 children through prevention projects. The preventative projects and programs we support include food & medical support, education support including tuition & school supplies, vocational training, and other humanitarian projects. In all that we do, we continue bringing the Good News of Jesus Christ. Jesus not only fed the people, but He also preached the Gospel everywhere He went. At Life Impact Int'l, our heart is to demonstrate the LOVE and POWER of God. We continue to see orphans, rebel soldiers, refugees, displaced peoples and children alike receive His love and hope into their hearts through evangelistic outreaches & crusades, leadership training seminars, men's & women's meetings, church ministry, children's ministries, and discipleship projects. Also in 2016, six teams from US churches went to Thailand to work with the staff and children of Life Impact Thailand Foundation, and also to help with the prevention projects that we support.

Part I, Line 2	Life Impact International (Life Impact) granted funds to Life Impact Thailand Foundation (the Foundation), a foreign exempt organization that was formed to be able to operate in Thailand. The Foundation is not a subsidiary of Life Impact. However, the CEO of Life Impact sits on the board of the Foundation. The other board members of the Foundation are Thai nationals who have a history of working for Life Impact and its CEO. In 2016, Life Impact made cash grants to the Foundation for the purpose of carrying out the programs in Thailand, which accomplish Life Impact's mission. Life Impact exercises close oversight and supervision of the assets and monetary funds granted to the Foundation. The CEO of Life Impact resides in Thailand. She approves all budgets and requests for operating funds submitted by the supervisors of the charitable projects and activities being conducted by the Foundation in Thailand. The CEO then observes and monitors the use of the funds, as she is regularly involved in the daily overseas operations. Funds are granted based on approved budget requests. The Thai staff are required to spend according to their approved budgets and to turn in receipts. At the end of each month, the receipts are reviewed by a staff accountant on site. The CEO receives regular reports from the accountant. The CEO is based in the Thailand office and visits the various homes several times a week and other project locations several times per month. She also visits the children's home in Myanmar at least twice a year, with other Life Impact staff members visiting the Myanmar site every three months or more. The Life Impact accountant residing in the United States also visits the overseas operations at least annually to provide oversight and collect reports and several Life Impact board members also visit the foreign project sites once or twice a year. Another Life Impact board member with extensive construction expertise is directly involved with construction projects overseas, overseeing their planning and execution. Life Impact International has written grant agreements in place with grant recipients receiving significant amounts. Life Impact International requires all other grantees to provide periodic reports documenting how funds have been spent.
