990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Section D, number 8	The Community Foundation of Gaston County ("CFGC") is the supported organization and is attentive to the operations of the organization due to the fact that the supporting organization provides well in excess of 10% of CFGC's annual support through distributions to or for the use of CFGC. In addition, the organization and CFGC have a long relationship, not only as supporting/supported organizations with a legal relationship, but also as two of the largest (if not the actual two largest) charitable organizations located in Gaston County, NC, that, by default, work hand in hand to support the community, which is the primary purpose of both organizations. As noted elsewhere in this Form 990, CFGC directly appoints one of the organization's directors who must also serve on the Executive Committee, and CFGC also directly oversees the management and distribution of the organization's annual distributions, ensuring that CFGC is attentive to the operations and investments of the organization. The organization is responsive to CFGC in light of CFGC's appointment of one of the organization's directors (which is required to be on the Executive Committee overseeing daily operations of the organization), strengthened by the fact that such director must also be a director of CFGC itself. Furthermore, CFGC has a significant voice in the investments and use of the organization's income and assets as described further above in Schedule A, Part IV, Section D, Line 3.
